Guided Reading & Analysis: Nationalism and Economic Development, 1816-1848

Chapter 8- Nationalism and Economic Development, pp 150-166

Reading Assignment:

Ch. 8 AMSCO or other resources for Period 4 content.

Purpose:

This guide is not only a place to record notes as you read, but also to provide a place and structure for reflections and analysis using higher level thinking skills with new knowledge gained from the reading.

Directions:

1. Pre-Read: Read the prompts/questions within this guide before you read the chapter.
2. Skim: Flip through the chapter and note the titles and subtitles. Look at images and their read captions. Get a feel for the content you are about to read.
3. Read/Analyze: Read the chapter. Remember, the goal is not to "fish" for a specific answer(s) to reading guide questions, but to consider questions in order to critically understand what you read!
4. Write Write your notes and analysis in the spaces provided.

Key Concepts FOR PERIOD 4:

Key Concept 4.1: The United States began to develop a modern democracy and celebrated a new national culture, while Americans sought to define the nation's democratic ideals and change their society and institutions to match them.

Key Concept 4.2: Innovations in technology, agriculture, and commerce powerfully accelerated the American economy, precipitating profound changes to U.S. society and to national and regional identities.

Key Concept 4.3: The U.S. interest in increasing foreign trade and expanding its national borders shaped the nation's foreign policy and spurred government and private initiatives.

It is emphatically the Province and Duty of the Judicial Department to Say what the Law is.

Section 1: The era begins with the end of the War of 1812 (1815) & the election of James Monroe (1816)

Remember the most significant thing to know about a war is the cause and effect... in particular, the relationship with European powers and America's desire for economic and territorial expansion.

THE WAR OF 1812 (1812-1814)

A. Causes

1. Impressment of American sailors
2. Problems with Indians in the Ohio River Valley
3. England continued to maintain forts on frontier
4. Agricultural depression
5. War Hawks (Calhoun and Clay) wanted to expand to Canada and were anti-British

B. Results

1. The status quo was maintained in the Treaty of Ghent (1815)
2. Increased nationalism
3. Increased manufacturing
4. Freedom of the seas restored
5. Andrew Jackson and William Henry Harrison became war heroes

Read the quote from Hezekiah Niles on page 150.

Based on this quote, what is a defining characteristic of the Era of Good Feelings?

Section 2 Guided Reading, pp 150-166

As you read the chapter, jot down your notes in the middle column. Consider your notes to be elaborations on the Objectives and Main Ideas presented in the left column. When you finish the section, analyze what you read by answering the question in the right hand column.

1. The Era of Good Feelings pp 155-153

Key Concepts & Main Ideas	Notes	Analysis
While Americans celebrated their nation's progress toward a unified new national culture that blended Old World forms with New World ideas, various groups of the nation's inhabitants developed distinctive cultures of their own. A new national culture emerged, with various Americans creating art, architecture, and literature that combined European forms with local and regional cultural sensibilities. Regional economic specialization, especially the demands of cultivating southern cotton, shaped settlement patterns and the national and international economy Despite some governmental and private efforts to create a unified national economy, most notably the American System, the shift to market production linked the North and the Midwest more closely than either was linked to the South.	The Era of Good Feelings... James Monroe... Cultural Nationalism... Economic Nationalism... Tariff of 1816... Henry Clay's American System... The Panic of 1819...	To what extent was this era "good?" James Monroe was the last of the Virginia Dynasty. Who else was a member of this group? Explain how Parson Mason Weems' fictional story of a young George Washington chopping down a cherry tree and then not being able to tell his father a lie when confronted about it illustrates a cultural trend of the time. How did the tariff of 1816 differ from the tariff in Hamilton's Plan during the early 1790s? Was Henry Clay more Hamiltonian or Jeffersonian? Explain your answer. Why did Monroe veto road and canal projects? How did the panic of 1819 impact American voters?

Key Concepts & Main Ideas	Notes	Analysis
The nation's transformation to a more participatory democracy was accompanied by continued debates over federal power, the relationship between the federal government and the states, the authority of different branches of the federal government, and the rights and responsibilities of individual citizens.	Political Changes... Changes in the Democratic-Republican Party...	Although the nation was united under a single political party, division emerged resulting in the eventual development of new parties. Compare the causes of these divisions to the causes of the Hamilton and Jefferson division leading to the first two party system in the 1790s. To what extent were these forces similar?

2. Marshall's Supreme Court and Central Government Powers pp 153-154

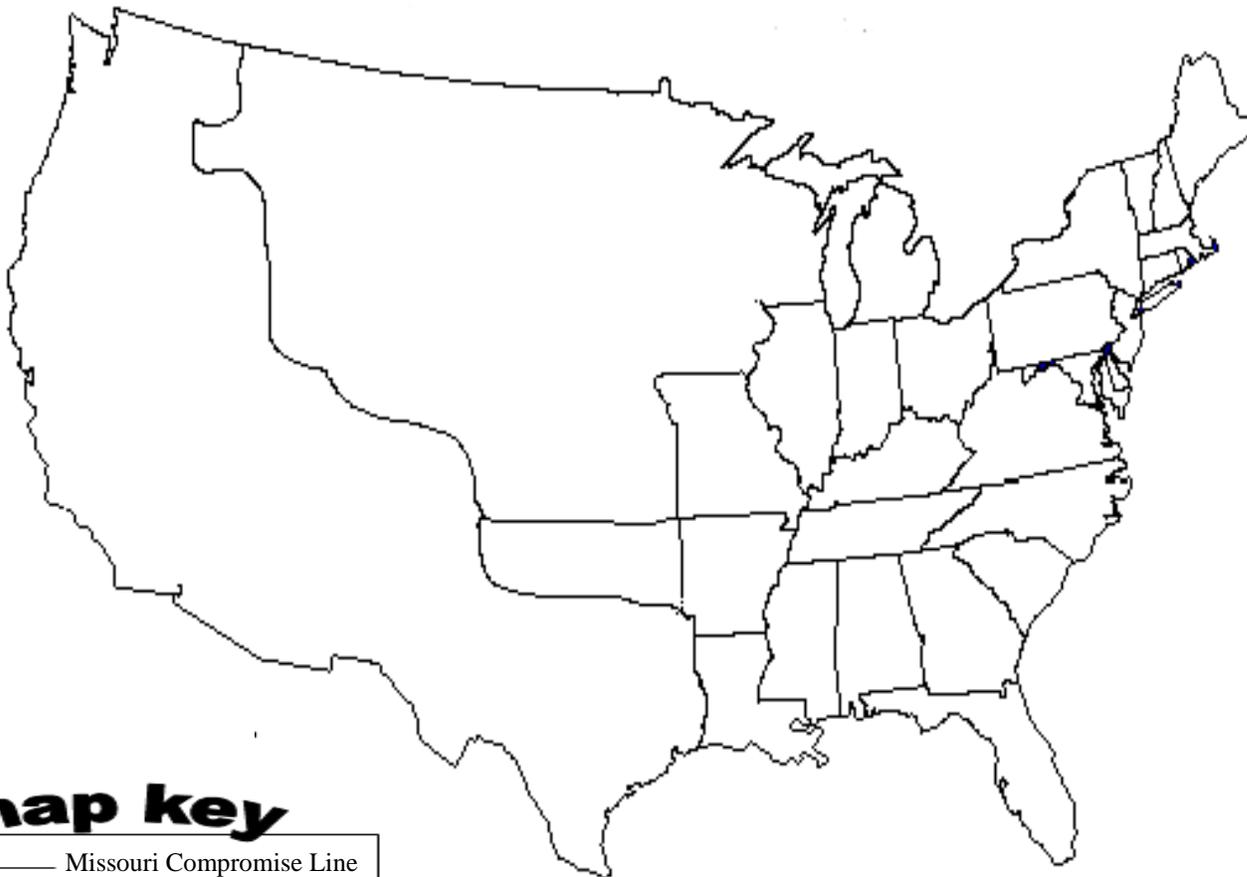

Key Concepts & Main Ideas	Notes
Supreme Court decisions sought to assert federal power over state laws and the primacy of the judiciary in determining the meaning of the Constitution.	Marshall's Supreme Court and Central Government Powers... identify the cases by writing the names in the circles 1803 1810 1816 1819 1819 1821 1824 Explain why these decisions are "landmark."	Appointment of midnight justices by John Adams rejected by Jefferson. Supreme Court decided constitutionality of Judiciary Act. Court ruled delivery of appointments not duty of court and declares Judiciary Act unconstitutional. Significance of Ruling: gave the Court the power of judicial review Georgia legislature canceled contract that granted land to speculators as part of bribe. S. Court ruled deal was legal and the state couldn't nullify it even if it was gained with bribe. Significance of Ruling: established the principle that state laws are invalid when in conflict with the Constitution Loyalist, Fairfax, had his land seized after Revolutionary War. He left land to relative following his death but Virginia seized it. Court overturned state court ruling. Jay's Treaty and Treaty of Paris both stated loyalist land would be returned. Significance of ruling: confirmed the Supreme Court's right to overrule a state court. Maryland wanted to tax branch of national bank. Court ruled against state. Significance of Ruling: upheld the right of Congress to charter a national bank, thus putting into national law the doctrine of implied powers. State wanted to make Dartmouth public school; charter was from King George III for private. Court rules charter cannot be changed by state. Significance of Ruling: by forbidding the state legislature to alter the college charter, established the principle that charters were contracts which could not be impaired. The state had tried and imprisoned people for illegally selling lottery tickets. Court ruled the state had the right to enforce the law which had not conflicted with the Constitution. Significance of Ruling: State courts must submit to federal jurisdiction and the federal court has the right to judicial review of state supreme court decisions State had given navigation monopoly which controlled waterways in NY. Court ruled monopoly unconstitutional because states cannot control trade. Significance of Ruling: gave the national government undisputed control over interstate commerce ...This freed internal transportation from state restraint. (year in AMSCO is typo, it's 1824)

3. Western Settlement and the Missouri Compromise, pp 154-157

Key Concepts & Main Ideas	Notes	Analysis
The American acquisition of lands in the West gave rise to a contest over the extension of slavery into the western territories as well as a series of attempts at national compromise Whites living on the frontier tended to champion expansion efforts, while resistance by American Indians led to a sequence of wars and federal efforts to control American Indian populations. The 1820 Missouri Compromise created a truce over the issue of slavery that gradually broke down as confrontations over slavery became increasingly bitter. As over-cultivation depleted arable land in the Southeast, slaveholders relocated their agricultural enterprises to the new Southwest, increasing sectional tensions over the institution of slavery and sparking a broad scale debate about how to set national goals, priorities, and strategies.	Western Settlement and the Missouri Compromise... Reasons for Westward Movement... Acquisition of American Indians' Lands... Economic Pressures... Improved Transportation... Immigrants... New Questions and Issues... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1.</li> <li>2.</li> <li>3.</li> </ol> Missouri Compromise... Tallmadge Amendment... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1.</li> <li>2.</li> </ol> Clay's Proposals... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1.</li> <li>2.</li> <li>3.</li> </ol> Aftermath...	To what extent was westward expansion responsible for increasing sectional conflict? Explain your answer. Explain how a 19th century America pioneer would view "acquiring American Indian land" as justifiable. Consider the culture clash of Americans and American-Indians. Support, refute, or modify the following statement: Henry Clay was the Great Pacificator and the Great Compromiser. Thomas Jefferson's reaction to the Missouri Compromise included, "But, as it is, we have the wolf by the ear, and we can neither hold him, nor safely let him go. Justice is in one scale, and self-preservation in the other." (recorded at his home, Monticello, Virginia, 22 April 1820) Explain the point Jefferson is making. Did he see the Missouri Compromise as a success?
