So China Rose reigned as the VCMEC Live III Supreme Champion for creator/owner Sue Rowe. A Breyer Proud Arabian Mare remade in 1990, So China Rose edged out Diane Capwell work Amantus VS, who was voted the Reserve Supreme Champion for Shannon Rodgers.

A Word to the Fore: Wasn't That a Time!

Yowza, what a blur of months it's been! We were just plain exhausted after Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress Live III, and then my gall bladder wanted to kill me--but now that it's been removed and I'm getting back up to speed after the surgery, we're rarin' to get back on track!

About the only constant since the last issue has been snow--from the season's first storm in late October, to the Christmas blizzard that dumped so much snow that we were trapped inside for two days, to the end-of-March mess more of it that sent the area's season total past the 200-inch mark. Right now there are 25 inches of snow on the ground, and it's April 2. A peek at how our place currently looks is at right. Ah well, we knew the job was dangerous when we took it! ;-)

The chill outside doesn't stand much chance, though, against all our warm memories from VCMEC Live III. Corny, but true! Thanks so much to everyone who attended! Special thanks too to Shannon Rodgers and Susan Stahl, whose donations were a huge help, and to Shannon's boyfriend, Ron, who bought lunch for everyone--for all the entrants, all the show staff!--and even put away the tables for us at show's end!

Our coverage of the show starts on the next page, and at left is the sweet "nagbrag" that Shannon sent to the Mares In Black Facebook page. Hope you'll enjoy--we sure did, and are already kicking around ideas for a powered-up edition of the event in 2024!

To help us get back on track, this issue is a combination of the Autumn and Winter 2022 VCMEC Model Horse Re-View, with the results of both VCMEC Live III and the first leg of the VCMEC 2022-23 Online World Championships show series. The Spring 2023 issue, with results of the second leg of the online series, is well along and we're aiming to publish it at the end of this month to get back on schedule.

Just a note, there are no Victory Laps this issue, but next issue will have the Victory Laps for both the first and second legs of the online series. Next issue will have the last several months' worth of Fair Values for vintage customs, too.

We're glad to be back. And now, on to the shows~!

-Sparky C.

Shannon Rodgers sent this lovely "nagbrag" to the Mares In Black Facebook page in October. Thanks so much, Shannon!

Reserve is SO China Rose with Sue Rowe!

Three cheers for Ardith Carlton and Corky Visminas judging fabulous blasts from the past!!! Also special to their show are the Showcase (people's vote celebrating the decades of the 60's/70's, 80's, and 90's) and also an Artist's spotlight where we get to see various models within that artist's body of work spread out amongst collections and time...very unique and special.

Also there got to see Julie Froelich, Sue Rowe, Deb Carlson, and Kim Kiley of MN. We had a great time celebrating our vintage beauties.

Finally, bragging on my boyfriend Ron who not only attended his first model horse show, but HELPED by getting everyone lunch and cleaning up the show tables afterwards. Great Guy!!!

Back at Last: Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress III

Emerging from the tumble of time that saw the world shut down by the COVID-19 pandemic, the third edition of the usually bi-annual Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress was held again at long last on Oct. 1, 2022.

Four intrepid entrants and their herds made the trek up through the vivid fall colors of the Northwoods to come to the historic Iron County Memorial Building in Hurley, Wisconsin--the town known for decades as "where Highway 51 ends and the fun begins."

Prefaced with a Friday-night swap meet, VCMEC Live III got underway bright and early on Saturday.

Originally planned to offer two competitions-- the VCMEC Breed Challenge (judged largely on conformation and breed type, with allowances made for age and condition) and the VCMEC Vintage Custom Showcase (with mizers' Constellation of Stars!

The Constellation offered six judged classes for the work of artists Michelle Belisle, Diane Capwell, Jamie Coughlin, Julie Froelich, Sue Rowe, and the team of Elizabeth Bouras and Judy Renee Pope, with assortments of candy awarded to the top placers.

A donation from Susan Stahl, who was unable to attend, also was a big help toward show expenses.

Shannon and her genial boyfriend Ron went above and beyond in helping make the day a wonderful one. Not only did they visit each tabletop herd and awarded prizes to their favorites, but Ron also bought lunch for all the entrants and show staff! After the show, he even broke down the tables--all darn heavy, made of wood and metal--and put them away. Thank you so, so much, Ron!

In the VCMEC Breed Challenge, 1990s Overall Champion Amantus VS, created by Diane Capwell and owned by Shannon Rodgers, was named Grand Champion.

No stranger to VCMEC success, Amantus VS was the VCMEC 2018-19

Online World Championship Overall Reserve World Champion 1990s Vintage Custom for previous owner Sophie Nordstrom of Sweden. He's a real globe-trotter of a horse--Shannon recently purchased him from Sophie, who in turn had acquired him from a German collector.

So China Rose, the 1980s Overall Reserve Champion to Amantus VS, was the VCMEC Breed Challenge Reserve Grand Champion for owner/creator Sue Rowe.

So China Rose then won the Grand Championship in the VCMEC Vintage

Custom Showcase, winning the popular vote for the title after taking the 1990s class.

RM Snake Plissken, second in the Showcase's 1980s class to *So Viktor Alexi, actually got more votes than that rival when the top two highest vote-getters in each of the Showcase's three classes returned for the vote-off to determine the Showcase's Grand and Reserve. Snake grabbed Reserve Grand honors for owner Sue Rowe.

On hand to see Snake pull it off was special guest Julie Froelich of Sayner, Wis. One of the most influential artists in the hobby's history, she created horses that are among the most hotly sought today. Julie chatted with entrants and was able to revisit seven of her creations for the first time in decades.

With So China Rose's Showcase Grand and Breed Challenge Reserve Grand combining to make her VCMEC Live III's Supreme Champion, all voted to see whether Amantus VS or RM Snake Plissken would be the Reserve Supreme Grand. But not even Snake could deny Amantus VS the honor!

Thanks so much to all for making this third Congress possible with your kind support and passion for vintage customs. Let's do it again in 2024!

Clockwise from top right: The array of awards included, for the first time, a lovely perpetual trophy that will be engraved with the names of VCMEC Live Supreme Champions. ~ Sue Rowe's RM Snake Plissken was Reserve Grand Champion of the Vintage Showcase, and let his creator, special guest Julie Froelich, try on his winnings. ~ Sue Rowe and Julie Froelich check out the gathering in the Customizers' Constellation of Stars class for Sue's work. ~ Shannon's boyfriend Ron helped make the show a wonderful time, and bought lunch for all the entrants and staff! Thank you again, Ron! ~ Sunshine's KT Miracle, Overall Reserve Champion of the Breed Challenge's 1960s/'70s division for owner/creator Sue Rowe, has quite a story. Commissioned by the late Kay McCue in 1975, and only the 26th horse that Sue had ever customized, Sunshine's KT Miracle recently surfaced for sale in a body box. She was found by hobby historian Teresa Rogers, who recognized the faint remains of Sue's signature and returned the old girl to her delighted creator.

Judge's Choice!

Judge Corky Visminas writes, "The Little Bits American Saddlebred is a mold that seems to be relatively under-used as remake fodder, and most of the time when you see a remade one, it's still in a gaitting pose. That's part of why Dark Commander, remade by Adren King in 1986 with painting and hair by Jason Ross, is so outstanding -- he's standing! He's been expertly put into a show stretch pose, with a prideful and confident cock of his head that's perfect for the breed, and given a realistic contrasty dark bay coat with strategic dap-ples.

"Another thing I really like about him is that, the first time I saw his photo, I had no idea of his scale -- it didn't even occur to me that he was Little Bit-sized. He somehow seems... larger than that. Does that make any sense? Part of that is certainly his photographer's skill -- he fills up the frame with his amazing presence to the point where he transcends his small scale! Kudos to both artists and to his owner for a really stunning little horse that makes a big impression!"
