

Helen Smith lives with her family in Del Norte, Colorado and is interning as an Outreach Specialist for the Rio Grande Basin roundtable. She began her service on the roundtable in 2016. Helen is a graduate of Adams State University and holds a B.A. in Mass Communications. Her accomplishments include: Ski Hi Stampede/Adams State University Scholarship recipient 2012 and 2013, Missionary with the Bob Tebow Evangelistic Association, National Little Britches Rodeo Association Youth Board Vice President and President. She currently works as a freelance writer and spends her free time riding horses, rodeoing, collecting and running.

Water Views: Water is a key to our very existence. It is vital that we use this resource wisely.