

This lower floor Chelsea residence uses a 'knife edge' cove light in its interior living and office spaces to provide a soft bright environment. Combined with marble counters, walnut flooring, silk wall coverings and custom cabinetry this NYC home is a great example of Pass Construction's ability to execute the details that make for an incredible living environment.