

Partying With A Purpose For 25 Years!

March 2020

"Escape to Margaritaville" is anything but common.

Boy meets girl, boy loses girl, boy gets girl back. It's a tried-and-true formula as old as the ages, and a favorite of playwrights and authors because of its universal appeal. Although this is the basic theme of this play, "Escape to Margaritaville" is anything but common.

The play opens with weather forecasters in blizzard conditions while "License to Chill" is played by a small orchestra on stage. We meet Tammy, the girl from Cincinnati, and her best friend Rachel. They are headed to where it's warm for a bachelorette blowout before Tammy's impending wedding. After being warned about landsharks in the Caribbean -- including a rousing dance routine to "Fins" -- the girls are off on their adventure.

The entire show is chock-full of Jimmy Buffett songs. Think of "The Songs You Know by Heart," add in a few more recent favorites, and you have an excellent idea of the 25 songs that were sung (and danced!) in their entirety. Like JB, my favorites are the ballads, and several of these are included. In between the song and dance numbers, the band would often play snippets of other familiar tunes. As a long- time fan of Buffett, these little morsels delighted me. Many of the tunes had slightly altered lyrics to better fit the script, which added to the novelty and fun of this production

The dialog included many references to things that orbit Buffett World: environmental causes, venture capitalists, Hush Puppies, mental floss, pop tops, the Hokey-Pokey. If you are a trivia buff (a Buffett buff?,) then you will truly feel like you are an insider. If you just like humor -- double entendres in particular – you will be equally entertained. That's what it's all about!

One of things I enjoy most about plays is the clever way they find to stage actions or events. "Escape to Margaritaville" does not disappoint. In fact, the staging is absolutely brilliant! From swimming in the ocean, to slo-mo, to volcanic eruptions, to the to the flashbacks we were warned about, it was all executed flawlessly.

The casting is stellar. I noticed and appreciated the fact that most of the actors are normal looking human beings, coming in all shapes and sizes, colors and ages. I don't know if this casting is by design, but in this photoshopped and airbrushed world in which we now live, it was refreshing to see relatable people.

Needless to say, one of the best things about Jimmy Buffett and his music are the friends we make along the way and the comradery we enjoy. There was plenty of spontaneous audience participation, much like his concerts or our phlockings. Alas, I didn't see any grass skirts or coconut bras, but maybe that's only because the Segerstrom Center is rather fancy. Hey, we can show decorum when we have to, right?

If you missed this outing, or the previous production in La Jolla, make a note to yourself to not miss the next opportunity to escape to Margaritaville. You will smile, laugh, and sing throughout. With a little love and luck, you may even dance a little on your way out of the theatre.

Staying Safe - Corona Virus (COVID 19)

Wash your hands frequently

Regularly and thoroughly clean your hands with an alcohol-based hand rub or wash them with soap and water.

Why? Washing your hands with soap and water or using alcohol-based hand rub kills viruses that may be on your hands.

Maintain social distancing

Maintain at least 6 feet distance between yourself and anyone who is coughing or sneezing.

Why? When someone coughs or sneezes they spray small liquid droplets from their nose or mouth which may contain virus. If you are too close, you can breathe in the droplets, including the COVID-19 virus if the person coughing has the disease.

Avoid touching eyes, nose and mouth

Why? Hands touch many surfaces and can pick up viruses. Once contaminated, hands can transfer the virus to your eyes, nose or mouth. From there, the virus can enter your body and can make you sick.

Practice respiratory hygiene

Make sure you, and the people around you, follow good respiratory hygiene. This means covering your mouth and nose with your bent elbow or tissue when you cough or sneeze. Then dispose of the used tissue immediately.

Why? Droplets spread virus. By following good respiratory hygiene you protect the people around you from viruses such as cold, flu and COVID-19.

If you have fever, cough and difficulty breathing, seek medical care early

Stay home if you feel unwell. If you have a fever, cough and difficulty breathing, seek medical attention and call in advance. Follow the directions of your local health authority.

Why? National and local authorities will have the most up to date information on the situation in your area. Calling in advance will allow your health care provider to quickly direct you to the right health facility. This will also protect you and help prevent spread of viruses and other infections.

Stay informed on the latest developments about COVID-19. Follow advice given by your healthcare provider, your national and local public health authority or your employer on how to protect yourself and others from COVID-19.

Why? National and local authorities will have the most up to date information on whether COVID-19 is spreading in your area. They are best placed to advise on what people in your area should be doing to protect themselves.

Brian Neale and Northern Harbour Lights

MEET Brian Neale

Brian Neale stepped in and played a few songs for The OCPHC, at Rock and Brews in Tustin after the Escape to Margaritaville at Segerstrom in Irvine. For almost 3 decades, Brian Neale has been bringing the sounds of the islands to his fans across the US, Canada, Germany, Austria, the Dominican Republic, Barbados, Australia, New Zealand and Denmark.

Professionally trained in both music and voice, he began his career as a solo artist performing both his own material and the music of artists such as Jimmy Buffett and The Eagles.

In 2003 he brought together a group of like minded musicians to form Northern Harbour and he has been inviting his audience to dream of the sun on their backs and sand between their toes ever since.

A highly trained actor, he has starred in countless productions in Canada and abroad and has worked or performed with a diverse range of entertainers such as Jim Vallance, Jimmy Buffett and Al Harlow.

With two albums to his credit, he has a solid following who come to hear him play live and dream of the ocean washing away their cares.

BUFFETT STARTS 2020 WITH IMPROMPTU SHOW AT MARGARITAVILLE

The whispered rumors started around midday on Jan. 18. They gathered steam throughout the afternoon and were proven true by 9 p.m., when Jimmy Buffett ducked under his guitar strap and nodded with a smile to members of his Coral Reefer Band.

The Margaritaville mogul took the stage at his own bar on Key West's Duval Street for his first live performance of 2020.

Buffett and the band had been in Key West recording a new album, "Life on the Flip Side," for release later this year.

The band played to a packed house of surprised tourists and in-the-know locals who had been on the receiving end of the day's rumors.

With songs that captured Key West's simpler times, Buffett serenaded sun-loving locals with the lyrics that lured them here so many years ago, and gave the disbelieving visitors the vacation memories of a lifetime. The new album will be available in May of 2020.
