2020 Tuber Sales Events

The Washington State Dahlia Society holds annual tuber sales events at a number of different venues in the Puget Sound area. The sales events are open to the public and provide an opportunity for dahlia fanciers to purchase tubers of a favorite color or form of dahlia. Choose from hundreds of varieties. Sales tables are attended by members of the Washington State Dahlia Society all of whom will enthusiastically answer any questions you may have. Stop by, check us out.

Planting instructions and other printed information on dahlias is also available.
