UPDATE ON FAITH DEVELOPMENT FOR CHILDREN

For all families that have registered for our faith development program at St. Augustine's, I am pleased to say that we have a tentative start date for the week of October 18, 2020.

Each of you that have registered will be receiving an email with the time and date of your scheduled session. Please take note that, due to this year's regulations, that session will be your only time to attend. We are no longer able to allow families to move between sessions due to the maintaining of our "bubbles".

For those that have not registered, please be advised that pre-registration is mandatory in order to attend our sessions. Families that are not on the attendance sheet for the session will not be allowed to attend. So, if you plan to attend our sessions this year, please register as soon as possible. You can register on line at www.gasmoncton.com under the faith development tab or you can complete one of the forms located at the back of the church and drop it off in the mail slot located by the office door facing Dominion Street. Fr. Angus & I are looking forward to spending what may be a challenging, but yet fun filled, year of faith development with all of you.

CONFIRMATION: THERE WILL BE AN INFORMATION SESSION AND REGISTRATION on Monday, October 26th at 6:30 pm in the church basement. Please note that, in order to maintain proper social distancing, we are restricting this meeting to just one parent and the candidate for confirmation. It is important that the candidate attend this meeting so they can be aware of what is expected of them over the coming year. We also ask that you, along with the candidate, wear a mask and arrive 10 minutes ahead of time to allow us to gather your contact information for our attendance sheet.

With peace & blessings, Eileen

Universal is looking to start calling all parishioners beginning the week of October 12th. Please be open to participating in this and be assured that all precautions are being taken for your safety.

WORLD FOOD DAY OCTOBER 16TH: A World Food Day has been promoted by the Food and Agriculture Organization since 1981. Exploring our Faith

Dressing for Others

Today's gospel passage is one that used to really bother me. The king sees a wedding guest who is not wearing the proper clothing, and has him bound hand and foot and thrown into the outer darkness. I understood that the wedding garments had been provided for the guests and failure to wear the wedding garment was a sign of disrespect, but I was still uncomfortable with what I thought was an emphasis on wearing the "right" clothes. Today, I am reading the story in a whole new light.

In biblical times, wedding garments were not provided for all the guests to appease the aesthetic sensibilities of the bride and groom. These simple robes were provided for all of the guests so that everyone could mingle freely, as equals. The wedding garments covered any distinctions of rank or wealth. They provided a form of protection to those of lower rank, allowing them to participate fully, in a way that might not be possible if those of higher social standing could tell at a glance that they were "less important."

The gospel story does not tell us why this particular guest chose not to wear the offered wedding garment, but I found myself wondering if his reason was that he was a person of significance and he wanted to distinguish himself from the "riff raff" who had been invited in. I could imagine him thinking that he did not need a wedding garment because everyone else would be happy to interact with him. I imagine someone who did not want to hide his own finery under a simple wedding robe.

But when the king enters the room, he is not impressed by this man who stands out because of his dress. The king only sees a man who is more concerned for his own comfort than he is for the comfort of anyone else in the room.

This parable seems particularly relevant in today's world, when all of us are being asked to put on a simple garment that will enable the more vulnerable among us to interact more freely. It would be more comfortable for many of us to make decisions about where we will go, who we will interact with and when we will or will not wear a mask, based solely upon our own level of risk and perhaps the level of risk of those closest to us. Like the wedding guest that I have imagined, we could tell ourselves that the standards in place don't really apply to us. Perhaps masks don't fit with our wardrobe preferences and we are at a low level of risk for any lasting harm even if we go about bare faced. But before we make a decision based on our individual rights and freedoms, this parable calls us to think again about the fact that all of us are guests in God's world, and as guests we are called to place ourselves on an equal footing with all of the other guests, including those whose needs are much greater than our own.

An excerpt from a prayer posted by the Ursuline Sisters of Chatham:

A Prayer as I put on my mask

Creator, as I prepare to go into the world, help me to see the sacrament in the wearing of this cloth. Let it be "an outward sign of an inward grace" – a tangible and visible way of living love for my neighbors, as I love myself. Christ, since my lips will be covered, uncover my heart, that people would see my smile in the crinkles around my eyes. Since my voice may be muffled, help me to speak clearly, not only with my words but with my actions. ... May this simple piece of cloth be shield and banner, and each breath that it holds be filled with your love. ...
