Tracking Number _____ 2022 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION INFORMATION
(For office use only)

INTRODUCTION: PLEASE READ THIS INFORMATION SHEET CAREFULLY. FAILURE TO FOLLOW APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS MAY RESULT IN DISQUALIFICATION OF YOUR APPLICATION.

The Airborne Scholarship Association is a non-profit organization established to award merit based scholarships to eligible dependent Family members of Veterans, Active Duty and Department of the Army Civilians from units within the XVIII Airborne Corps who have served in combat operations since 11SEP2001 to assist in their pursuit of higher education. The intent is for scholarships to be awarded annually and will be open to undergraduate studies that result in a degree or vocational certification from an accredited college, vocational or technical institution.

Applications with all required information and documentation must be provided to the committee no later than 1 April 2022. (No applications or accompanying documentation can be received via e-mail.) Any incomplete applications postmarked later than 1 April 2022 will be ineligible. Applicants are required to provide all requested information to be properly evaluated for any scholarship award. A recipient may receive no more than one scholarship from this fund per year.

ELIGIBILITY: APPLICANTS MUST MEET THE FOLLOWING CRITERIA

Dependent Family member of Active Duty, Veteran or DA civilian who served in an XVIII Airborne Corps Unit to include Headquarters and Headquarters Battalion; the 44th MED Brigade; the 20th Engineer Brigade; the 16th Military Police Brigade; the 18th Field Artillery Brigade; the 525th Battlefield Surveillance Brigade, 3rd Expeditionary Sustainment Company, 35th Signal Brigade or the 7th Transportation Brigade Expeditionary; between 11Sep2001 to current. Due to several realignments of Corps, not all units who previously fell under the Corps are listed. Applicants may apply if the service members' unit fell under the Corps during the eligible dates. Although the 82nd Airborne is a Corps Unit it is not an eligible unit. The 82nd has a scholarship specifically for 82nd dependents.

- 1) Registered in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS)
- 2) High School senior, graduate or registered as an undergraduate student at an accredited post-secondary college or vocational or technical institute pursuing degree or certification completion.
