

The Waterford Post.

VOLUME 37

WATERFORD, WISCONSIN, THURSDAY, JANUARY 22, 1914

NUMBER 14

Professional Cards

Kearney, Thompson & Myers

LAWYERS
RACINE, WISCONSIN
Have opened an office at Waterford in Noll's office building. Peter J. Myers of above firm will be at Waterford every Friday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. to meet clients.

HANNAFORD & BROWN

LAWYERS
910 Majestic Bldg., Milwaukee, Wis.
Branch office at Waterford, in Chris. Berger's Building.
OPEN EVERY SATURDAY.

LEWIS J. QUINN

ATTORNEY AT LAW

of the firm of Hand, Hand & Quinn
510 Monument Square
RACINE, WIS.
I have an office at State Bank, Waterford, and will be there every Saturday.

Peoples' Column

FOR SALE, WANTS, Etc.

RATES—Not to exceed five lines, 25 cents for single insertion or three weeks for 50 cents. Larger space charged accordingly.

FOR SALE—A Duroc Jersey Boar old enough for service. Will be sold cheap if taken at once. James Hambrick, R. 2, Waterford, 1423

FOR SALE—Ten tons of tame hay, ten tons of marsh hay and some corn stalks, on the farm known as the Patrick place. 1423
Prof. J. Massey, R. 2, Waterford.

DRESSMAKING—The undersigned is prepared to attend to all orders for dressmaking and more can be left at the home of Oscar Meier and will be given prompt attention. 1423
Miss Kate Meier, Waterford.

FOR SALE—A number of Buff Rock Cocks. Frank Hewitt, R. 2, Burlington, 1423

FOR SALE—Fourteen young pigs about 12 weeks old. John Tospenny, R. 2, Burlington, 1423

FOR SALE—A lot of high grade Holstein Bull Cows. Nicely marked and from good producing dams. E. Hand, Emerson, Wis. 1423

Local Chips

Regular Saturday evening hop at Noll's hall.

Thos. Leavy has purchased a Ford automobile of Fred G. Johnson.

Mrs. Chas. Alby is visiting her children at Burlington and Union Grove.

Chas. Thompson has been absent on a business trip to the northern part of Wisconsin.

Joe. Wiseman, of Racine, was here last Sunday for a visit with his mother and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Becker are the happy parents of another bouncing son, making their family consist of four boys.

Simon Gulick is attending the threshermen's convention at Madison this week. He also visited relatives in Whitewater.

E. Kasiske and daughter, of Milwaukee, were calling on Waterford relatives last Sunday.

Wm. Heiderman, ex-supervisor of Burlington, has bought a saloon in Chicago. He was a popular official and has many friends throughout the county.

Alfred Noll will have an exhibit of his White Plymouth Rock chickens at the Detroit show. F. B. Tindall has a display of his Barred Rocks at the Beloit show.

Racine and Kenosha county beet growers have accepted the offer of a sugar plant at Roundale, Ill., for their product the coming season. They will receive a flat rate of $3.50 per ton.

The East Troy house has again changed hands, the new landlord being Geo. Shields, and he will make a good one. In the trade Mr. Wood accepted an 80 acre farm near East Troy as part payment.

John Nehls has sold his property at the western edge of the village to F. E. Tindall. The same consists of house

Dr. Emma Olson, of Milwaukee, spent Sunday at the home of her parents.

At a meeting of Rochester board of supervisors last Saturday Samuel Probst was appointed town chairman to fill the vacancy made by George Elna resigning to accept a position on the Agricultural school board.

During the basket ball game at Amusement hall last night Leonard Titus was thrown to the floor and injured his hip so badly that he had to be carried home. He fainted from the pain in his side. It is hoped the injury is not serious.

C. H. Miller, whose lease has expired on the James Kilpatrick farm in the town of Rochester, will have a big auction sale of personal effects on Feb. 7th. J. L. Walker will be auctioneer and Ed. Rowntree, clerk. Further particulars given in an adv. in next week's Post.

C. Roy McCanna has been elected president of the Bank of Burlington to fill the position made vacant by the death of his father. The other officers

The Old Man Observes

That a moss-back is usually a man who don't agree with you.

That the Waterford Literary Society is living up to its name and furnishing some real literary treats.

That anyone suffering from rheumatism should be excused for sneering at the predictions of the weather bureau.

That the worried iceman shivers every time the weather turns milder. We still have February and March to supply us with frozen chunks.

That one of the most popular card games is called "Rummy" and is certainly true to name. The least you know of rules or systems the better you can play.

That circumstances some times alter boys' aces as well as cases. Answer-

Chas. Stier died at his home in the town of Burlington on Monday night aged nearly 75 years. The cause of death was cancer of the stomach. Prior to moving to Burlington he had been a resident of Norway over fifty years. Mr. Stier was twice married, his first wife being the mother of eleven children, ten of whom survive as follows: Mrs. Charles Berger, of Tichigan; Mrs. Lizzie Tesdorf, of Burlington; Charles, of East Troy; Rudolph and Will of Burlington; George of Waterford; Henry, of Norway; Mrs. Chas. Smith, of Denoon; Mrs. August Ludwig and Mrs. Chas. Mathers of Burlington. The funeral takes place to-day, services at the house and interment in Oakwood cemetery.

January 22, 1914 : The Waterford Post's obituary of Charles (Carl Christian) Stier. Charles was the boy who came from Germany with his father Heinrich. Charles' youngest son was my great-grandfather George Stair.

ness extended during the long illness and at the time of the death of his wife.

Chas. Stier died at his home in the town of Burlington on Monday night aged nearly 75 years. The cause of death was cancer of the stomach. Prior to moving to Burlington he had been a resident of Norway over fifty years. Mr. Stier was twice married, his first wife being the mother of eleven children, ten of whom survive as follows: Mrs. Charles Berger, of Tichigan; Mrs. Lizzie Tesdorf, of Burlington; Charles, of East Troy; Rudolph and Will of Burlington; George of Waterford; Henry, of Norway; Mrs. Chas. Smith, of Denoon; Mrs. August Ludwig and Mrs. Chas. Mathers, of Burlington. The funeral takes place to-day, services at the house and interment in Oakwood cemetery.

The Sweetest Flower of All

by we always
The sweetest of the path alist are the is true when is of appre-
it. Following remittances received with-

report from Secretary Geo. W. Walker that the Burlington, Rochester & Kossaville Co. has 430 subscribers and the Burlington, Brighton & Wheatland Co. has 333.

That we know it is not very christian-like but we cannot help smiling at the troubles of the express companies are encouraging in trying to compete with Uncle Sam's parcel post. The "old man" is not so old but he can easily remember how the express companies used to hold him up in common with the rest of the dear people.

That we hesitate about making much noise since we might attract the attention of more people we owe, but the Post print shop has this week received a lot of new material, including a large paper cutter, know to the craft as a "Diamond," with power attachment. Some day we hope to say "no job of printing too large for this shop."

That someone sensibly remarks that since patrons of the literurban electric lines are now paying the same rate of fare as on the steam roads they should demand the same accommodations in the way of heated waiting stations rather than the present cold storage plants. A freight service would bring about this happy condition, for then the company could afford to keep a station agent here and provide a comfortable waiting room.

of Mukwonago, writes: "Enclosed find renewal for your spicy paper for another year. Can't keep house without it. Wish the Post a prosperous 1914."

That the old Sheridan Drive project is being revived. This is the boulevard planned to connect Chicago and Milwaukee. In Illinois much of the road has