Cocktail Culture The Mad Men Era

Monday, May 22nd at 6:30

With the onset of Prohibition in 1919, cocktail parties in the home became very popular. Karen Antonowicz will examine the fashions of the 1920s through the 1980s, not only in clothing styles but also in home décor and accessories. Karen's slides, video clips, and samples of vintage clothing make the era come alive.

This program is supported by a grant from the Lakeville Arts Council, a local agency which is supported by the MA Cultural Council, a state agency.

Local Author – John Morse

Monday, May 15th at 6:00

Lakeville author John Morse, will be joining us to discuss and sign copies of his recently published novel, Half Staff 2018. America is under attack and the clock is ticking. Half Staff 2018 begins with a series of Veterans Day terrorist attacks within the United States in 2017, with the objective to make certain the Stars and Stripes would hang at half-staff each and every day.

John Morse was commissioned via the NROTC program at Dartmouth College and completed a naval career as a surface warfare officer that included worldwide deployments and command of two surface combatants.

Copies of Half Staff 2018 will be available at the event for purchase and signing.

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY SPRING BOOK SALE

Saturday, May 20th
from 10 - 2

Join us for the Friends Spring Book Sale! Used books of all kinds will be available for purchase in the Great Ponds Gallery. Since we had to cancel our Winter book sale due to Mother Nature, the selection will be even better than usual.

We accept donations of used books and other media for the sale. Please bring donations in during hours of operation. Please remember we do not accept text books, encyclopedias or video/cassette tapes.

Once Upon a Generation...

Thursday, May 25th at 6:30pm

Join us for the culmination of a nine-week intergenerational program, connecting our local Lakeville and Freetown seniors with experienced storytelling students from the George R. Austin Intermediate School and Freetown/Lakeville Middle School. Travel in your imaginations with a five year old child living on a farm in Fairhaven, listen to a touching story of a family who befriends a Polish immigrant, stroll through a diverse Brooklyn neighborhood with a young boy on a family errand, and more. These true stories are beautiful glimpses into the past, of lives changed, transformed and enriched by their experiences.

This program is supported in part by a grant from the Freetown Cultural Council, a local agency, which is supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.

Great Ponds Gallery

USAbstract by Bonnie Sloan

This exhibit is very unique and interactive. Ms. Sloan is exhibiting 50 paintings, one to represent each of the 50 states, inspired by the work of 50 abstract artists. The paintings are not labeled with the name of the state. Quiz sheets will be available through the two-month exhibit, as well as hints and answer sheets. (Larger states are represented on larger canvases, smaller states in smaller paintings, vertically oriented states will have long canvases, horizontally oriented states will be horizontal paintings.) Maps are on display in several places to help with your investigation!

Why not visit the exhibit to see how well you know your states?
