

Legal Update
June 9, 2010

Pappa vs HNOA

On June 8 the HNOA filed a request in Tillamook County for a Limited Judgment which seeks to describe the HNOA as a prevailing party (as the Van Roekels have already been designated) and thus entitled to recover legal expenses. Filing of this motion was delayed while HNOA attempted unsuccessfully to recover legal expenses from the Pappas out of court.

The Pappas have several days to object to the requested Limited Judgment. Should they do so, the matter will be set for trial prior to which HNOA intends to file a motion for summary judgment.