Prayers Answered!

Ron Montandon shared that they had 'received a call on Easter from their son Rick's wife stating the he had been sick for two days in Baghdad. Later they received a call that he was in the Hospital in Baghdad and had suffered a stroke. We have been waiting every day to find out how he is doing. The reports are that he is improving day by day. Today he was flown to Germany to Landstuhl Region Medical facility. He should be back in the states maybe on Friday at Walter Reed Medical in DC. We received a call yesterday from the Army they will be flying both me & Shirley to meet him when he is in the states. We have been told that everything is taken care of. I will lose time at work Shirley has vacation time but it is at a bad time for her because of taxes but our son comes first. I am not sure when we are leaving or when we will get back. When the army called they wanted to know how long it would take us to get to an airport.'

Yesterday (23rd) I received message that Rick was out of the hospital & was expected to make a full recovery. ☺
Today I had a chat with Ron & it seems the event although there was a happy ending was bogged down at every turn with misinformation, confusion & multiple frustrations! They did get to see & visit with Rick & wife & the news (end result) was good! Rick is a Cpt. in US Army. ☺ Continued Prayers Welcome!

Great (Late March) Trip to Panama Canal!

(sorry her note did not make it in time for March newsletter)
Merilee Anshutz-Schwulst shared glowing reports of her recent trip to - The Panama Canal Trip, she said it was amazing. ☺
'Can't believe that it was built 95 years ago (without power tools) and is still working well today. It took 8 hours to go through the 6 locks (3 locks then a lake & then 3 more locks). The rest of the trip was also very good. We saw lots of wildlife in Aruba and Costa Rica and also up the Mexican coast at Huatulco, Acapulco & Cabo San Lucas. Then we flew back to Denver on Friday in the middle of a snow storm - what's with that! Oh well, it was great anyway and we are glad to be home. Sorry I don't know how to download pictures to send, but this old gal is not up on all that technology. Have a great Spring!
