Today's Bible Quiz

The chief captain in Jerusalem who had ordered that Paul be examined by scourging changed his mind when he learned that Paul was:

- a) truly an apostle
- b) not a common man
- c) able to sway the multitude
- d) a Roman citizen

Head and Heart

Who says, I know Him, and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But whoever keeps His word, truly the love of God is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him (1 John 2:4,5).

IN SEEKING GOD, HOW SHOULD REASON AND EMOTION BE RELATED?

What does knowledge have to do with love, and what do both knowledge and love have to do with obedience?

Since God is the ultimate perfection of love, our understanding of love should come from Him. We must allow God's character to show us what love is and His conduct to show us what love does. Cut off from the knowledge of God, the thing that we call love soon becomes weak and misguided. If what we know of God is not accurate, we will not be able to put real love into practice. Our attempts to show love will do more harm than good. But also, it is the knowledge of God that causes us to want to love. He is not only the what of love; He is also the why. The knowledge of God is our most powerful motivation to love, and no one can really say that he knows God if he has not been moved to greater love. The apostle John said it very simply: Who does not love does not know God, for God is love (1 John 4:8).

This helps us to see how obedience is connected to both knowledge and love. To know God is to love Him, and to love Him is to want to show that love. Worldly knowledge and love may be lethargic, but godly knowledge and love are active. And not only active, they are willing to be governed by God's rule. Knowledge and love are, in a word, obedient. And again, John said it simply: This is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome (1 John 5:3).

In practice, of course, all of this requires a serious study of the Scriptures. Our obedience to God must be grounded in our love for Him. Our love must be determined by our knowledge of God. And our knowledge of God must come from His own self-revelation in the Scriptures. Each of these reinforces the other, resulting in spiritual growth. The more we know of God, the more we will love Him. And the more we love Him, the more we will want to know of Him. When all is said and done, that is why we want to go to heaven.

We must know before we can love. In order to know God, we must often think of him. When we finally love him, we shall automatically think of him all the time, because our heart will be with our treasure (Brother Lawrence).

Today's Bible Quiz Answer

d. a Roman citizen (Acts 22: 25-29)

JUST FOR FUN

Visiting his grandparents, a small boy opened the big family Bible. He was fascinated as he fingered through the old pages. Suddenly, something fell out. He picked it up and found that it was an old leaf that had been pressed flat between the pages. "Mama, look what I found," he called out.

"What have you got there, dear?" his mother asked.

With astonishment in his voice, the boy answered, "I think it's Adam's underwear!"
