Clare you helped me with fasting, patience, knowing what to pray for and how to pray, as well as how to resist sin. No one in my life or youtube has helped me with that, just know that your work is unrivaled and very helping and effective to those who need it. Also thanks Heartdwellers, God bless you all.

Jane Heimbichner 11.8.17

It is true Clare. Your struggles parallel mine for sure. I love Sid Roth but I am always looking for YOUR next message, more than Sid's guests, and his ministry is also great, But I can't wait to hear what's going on between you and Jesus so I can apply it to my life too. Thank you for stepping up to your ministry. I am hopeful of finding a ministry too. Until then, at least I know that a hidden, prayerful life does have meaning. Thanks, in part, to you!

Servant of the Lord 11.8.17

GRACEFULLY BROKEN It has been three years since I first discovered the Heart Dwellers channel. I was so amazed with Clare, she is a very beautiful instrument of our Lord Jesus. I was so amazed that I became jealous not in a bad way but in a good way because I learned how to seek the Lord. Everyday I dwell in His Heart until one day... I will never forget that, HE FINALLY MET ME! I almost died with awe of HIS PURE GLORY OHH, SUCH A BEAUTIFUL EXPERIENCE. He taught me everything, we talked all day and I met Father God and I became TRULY MADLY DEEPLY IN LOVE with Him, more of Him and less of me. I became Him... It's hard to explain but I felt no anger, no jealousy, no hatred just pure love for everyone.

It's all so true everything that the Lord said here in this channel and in the Bible came to life... But it all change after watching that video about the Lord will have to delay the rapture it was July and I was all so ready to go home, you know how the world just takes away everything in one day from you the persecution was too much and He said that we will be granted three years... 3 years?! I wept and wept for days, months until it became years. He healed me but when I think of it, there's like a sting in my heart because all I can see was my pain and suffering :( It became more of me and less of Him.. I lost Him, everything of Him. The battle was so hard I walked away leaving Him behind because I was in so much pain but I know it was painful for Him as well because I left HIM :( After that my life had been so empty but I always see this speck of light in the darkness. There would be times that when I am so down and feel worthless I would see Him by my side comforting me and I would just cry, and He would cry with me as well.

That's how He was to me. I knew it was time to go back to my Husband, I tried to ignore it but the more I ignore it the louder it gets to me so I reconciled with Him, it was that point when I was gracefully broken and weak. But when I am weak He is strong. He taught me again, all over again and when I fall down He says "Come, let's do it again :)". Wonderful yet mysterious for a human could comprehend but YES He is... I am currently God's work in progress. Yup I am no less than you... With all the beauty and revelations the Lord had and continuously showing me I walked away from Him. Now He gave us more time and I can only be so much happy to accompany my Lord in His agony.

What a beautiful love story of ours and it goes on till eternity. I hope you will not grow bitter of this. If you are the Lord will still be with you, my only advice for you is that be ready... Because He will show you more than you could possibly imagine. You are loved forever. Thank my LORD, MY HUSBAND AND MY FOREVER.

Thank you so much Clare for being a useful vessel. You have truly done so much work for the Lord, whether you believe it or not. Know your authority in Jesus and scare those demons away!!! I don't think I would've ever been able to have a real, personal relationship with the Lord if it wasn't for you, and I'm sure many others can say the same. Stay focused on your mission, whether you fail feel like you've failed or not. And know that He is always with you wherever you go, and don't allow ANYONE to stop you from doing what pleases Him. You will never be able to make Jesus displeased with you, EVER. He loves you and you are His. This also goes to every Heartdweller.

Have I ever told you guys that GOD healed this man of a broken wrist when I listened to the healing videos of Mrs. Clare and experience it for myself? This man was healed of a broken wrist. It wasn't actually instantly but it was time I think in 20 minutes. This mans arm was getting better. He actually said it and he was actually kind of shocked. I never got to see the actual pictures of the x Ray and I never seen him again. Maybe because GOD wanted me to be humble? I don't know but he was healed of a broken wrist! My mother too was healed of cramps when I laid hands and prayed for God's healing. My younger sister tried the same teachings GOD taught us through Mrs. Clare's channel and I kid you not my headache was healed INSTANTLY!!

Elizabeth Ballew 11.4.17

Yeah Clare!!! You're HELPING MY ENTIRE FAMILY and. OTHERS around me!!!! You can't give up - there's a whole LOT of people out here you don't even know is THAT ARE LIVING BETTER AND WITH MORE HOPE!!! Don't give up!!! I need these messages. It's changing my LIFE AND A HUNDRED AROUND ME!!! Please help us! Thank you for helping us. God bless you.

VEGASVANCITYGIRL 11.4.17

I've always have yearned deep down in my soul for this gift. Because my heart truly HURTS to see others suffer! I've been praying about this. While praying for more time— the promises JESUS & FATHER MADE TO US!!! Joel 2:28. I do everything JESUS TOLD us to do - communion etc. Clare; I've learned sooo much from your teachings!! Don't ever feel like your worthless! I deal with soooo much oppression, but what does JESUS say about the 99 sheep the shepherd left for just one? That is YOU & EZEKIEL , but there's MORE THEN ONE!!

YBSMike 10.31.17

Wow. Everytime I write about just how Blessed we here are, something more happens to further inflate the level for which we are Blessed! Jesus is amazing! Like Clare, if there's one single thing I have always wanted to be able to do, it is to heal people. I know how easily pride could get in the way, but I have always found great pleasure in people's reactions when they receive something special. I have seen my share of miracles since being saved, and can never forget those people who were affected when the Lord defied all odds and healed them of illnesses. The first was a 12 year old girl, who is very close to my family.

She got a rare cancer a few years ago, and according to 5 of the area's best doctors, who had decided to meet together from outside areas just to discuss this girl's case, she had only a 10% chance at life. I immediately brought her story to the Heartdwellers intercessors and the channel, and even though for the previous 3 weeks all the statistics grew worse for her survival, within a few days of your prayers, and the intercessors, something changed. I should also mention that at this time, this girl, her father and sister also Prayed for the very first time in the hospital with my daughter, in a circle asking the Lord for mercy. With all these Prayers, and all these people Praying, within 1 week flat, everything changed!

Her survivability changed from 10% and was now 90%! These very same doctors had NEVER seen this happen before in a human body in their careers. Her cancer was right next to her aorta, and even the smallest growth would have killed her. Instead of it growing, it shrunk, and within about 3 weeks of all the Praying everybody did, the cancer was GONE! She fully recovered, and to this day keeps a rosary around her ankle and firmly believes in God, along with her sister and father. The doctors did not use the word "miracle", but they did write up her last report and proclaimed that there was an "unexplained healing" done to this girl as the cancer was now gone without a trace. But this was only the first, there's been so many more and it's such a powerful thing to witness when a family goes from complete defeat to overwhelming joy, belief and Love for the Lord! I don't think there is anything better one can experience in this World!

For us to be offered this opportunity is a great honor, and it's being offered to us by Jesus Himself! - Jesus offered us all to push in to receive the gift of Healing - Ohh how Blessed we really are! Thank You Jesus for ALL the things you do for us here! We are so lucky to have heard your calling to become a part of this ministry! I will be doing everything in my power to achieve this gift! Thank you for the message Jesus, Clare and Carol! God Bless all you HeartDwellers for your Love, Prayers and donations to this ministry, and for Praying for Clare and Ezekiel! Glory be to God for gathering an amazing group of His Children in one place so that we can all share our love for the Lord!!

Hello Heartdwellers! First, A BIG “THANK YOU” to all of you who sent the very sweet welcome emails! I don’t think I’ve had that many emails in my inbox since spam got hold of it! LOL ((HUGS)) Loved them! THANK YOU! I count it an absolute privilege to be part of your prayer warrior team! THANK YOU for letting me share in this tremendous blessing!

I learned about Clare’s (& Ezekiel) ministry in April this year via one of her Youtube videos. I was searching for clues of the Lord’s return and searching to know the Lord more intimately (mainly His personality—the human side, the hidden things Scripture doesn’t reveal—was He always serious/ mysterious to the point He stood out in a crowd?, did He laugh and cut-up?, what was He like with His mother, Joseph, His brothers & sisters?). I had listened to many so-called prophetic messages, but when I heard Clare’s I was hooked and stopped listening to other messages. I couldn’t get enough because it was such rich and enlightening teaching (not just prophecy) I had not heard in the other messages. It was authoritative, gently convicting, and confirmed Scripture in a much deeper way, so I knew it was the voice of the Lord. I printed all the volumes available and have been reading, reading, reading trying to catch up to current date on all the teachings and prophecy. I’m currently reading the older dated volumes at night and the 2017 volume as my devotional in the mornings. I never have enjoyed reading, but this I LOVE and can’t put down!

Ok...so who is this mysterious “new girl” in Idaho that’s just joined your group? Well, my husband (Joe) and I have been married over 26 years and have 3 beautiful children (ages 18, 15, 10 + three kiddos in heaven) and I’ve been homeschooling since our oldest started 1st grade

(he's graduated now, doing online college, got a great job, and recently moved out ugh...heartbreaking!).

I sought forgiveness and gave my life to the Lord in August 1997 during some VERY difficult trials in my life (long story, but will be happy to share if you ask). I'm actually a southern bell from Georgia (ahh...love that sweet tea & sure do miss that delicious southern food—nothing like it ya'll!).

So, how did we end up in Idaho? Well, God put it on my heart, sometime in the late 90's, this strange desire to move to Idaho (a place we'd never been, knew nothing about, and knew no one there). At the time, I believed the desire was all my own--wanting to get out of the southeast with its dreadful humidity, fast-paced lifestyle, and rising crime. We also seriously considered Wisconsin (where Joe's sister lives), but the Idaho thing just wouldn't let go of me. I couldn't figure it out and I couldn't shake it no matter how hard I tried. I told my husband I would probably live with deep regret if we moved to Wisconsin and didn't at least check out Idaho first. Being one income, money is always an issue, especially when it comes to a family vacation for 5 where the extra expense of flying is involved. However, being such a huge life decision, it was a must, so thank the Lord for tax returns! We visited Idaho in July 2010 and a peace came over me--we knew this was the place for us! We went home, put our house up for sale, and started praying. Nine months went by with absolutely nothing—no responses to resumes sent or potential buyers for our home.

At that point, I felt like the Lord wasn't in our Idaho plan and I was making Idaho an idol in my life. I prayed asking the Lord to take the desire from me so that I could let it go. But, the Lord kept sending me little signs here and there keeping the dream alive (like an encouraging verse in the Bible, a question to ponder from my children's homeschool Bible curriculum, a dream my mom had of us moving, a fortune cookie message—I truly looked for Him to speak in everything!) In March 2011, "THE CALL" we'd been waiting for finally came! My husband got offered a job and we were in Idaho just 5 weeks later (house sold 3 months after we left)! My 40th birthday present from the Lord was Idaho...in fact, I spent my birthday on the road headed here! It was awesome! One I'll never forget!

The Lord had a special purpose for bringing me here that I never understood until 2014. I was a "disciple in training". The Lord wanted to teach me some things I hadn't been taught in any of the churches we had attended back in GA. His still small voice woke me at 4 am one morning instructing me on which church He wanted us to attend; three times the church name was repeated. I was kind of awake and asleep when the voice came, but when our alarm went off that Sunday morning, I told my husband I knew what church God wanted us to attend. This church was VERY focused on teaching our job as Christians is to spread God's Word to everyone everywhere! Honestly, I was pretty uncomfortable with this teaching for a while because I was feeling guilty for not doing so.

I had always believed the Great Commission was a pastor or evangelist job, not ordinary Christians. But the Lord kept putting it HEAVY on my heart, and so, I finally surrendered and my purpose for the Lord began here in Idaho at age 42! It's been quite the ride too. We've suffered several attacks from the evil one for this mission the Lord has given me (mostly financial, condemnation, severe depression, and some other minor physical illnesses), but the Lord keeps me pressing on.

Now, I have the Heartdwellers to help me on this journey and I've learned that our suffering is actually given for the lost. What a comfort to know this during the trials! THANK YOU LORD....YOU ARE SO VERY GOOD!!!

Sorry this was so long. I look forward to praying with you my Heartdweller friends of faith! God bless you all,
Tracy Riggs

Hey Family,

I just wanted to share with you a testimony not only for still small voice channel but of the binding prayer that Ms. Clare has provided us all. I am now having a few people coming on each video I do to continuously warn me about the this channel however I also share with them truth and testify to the fruits in my life and on my channel are from this ministry by Gods grace. I had a friend who was going through some heavy oppression and I wasn't sure what to do because we had prayed so many times. So I felt led to tell him that we should pray the binding prayer together and have me speak tongues over him. He initially had told me he liked the channel and many videos had helped but he had one person say that the teachings weren't of God. I made the same statement about the fruits in my life testifying to what this channel has done and he agreed.

As we began to pray together after the Repentance part he began to throw up. I was shocked but knew what was happening because I had seen deliverance take place before. I began to pray in the spirit. The Lord had me on the phone with this young man for about 3 1/2 hours praying in the spirit as he was purging him and finishing the prayer. Afterwards he was amazed and had never experienced anything like that. I was in awe at the power of God and never experienced anything like that myself. I fell Gods presence so strongly throughout it all. He then said he would never deny Gods power and will tell everyone what God did for him. As well as having such an amazing confirmation about this ministry and binding prayer. So what the enemy intends against this ministry the Spirit and Power of God testify!!! #hushjesushush :)

Thank you so much Ms. Clare & Ezekiel for your obedience, your endurance, your perseverance your blessing hundreds of thousands of souls all over the world because of your ministry this young man is now set free and on fire for the Lord. I am so humbled, honored, and privileged to be apart of this ministry. Love you!! Nana

Chanelle Eusebe 9.1.17 – (Amazing Testimony of Hurricane Maria)

On September 18th 2017, we were warn of a hurricane to hit Dominica at a category 2. Most of us did minimal preparation I told my kids aunty if anything I would come over with my 3 little boys - I call them my 3 Hebrew boys. Work was called off as well as school. Dominica the nature Isle was under a hurricane warning. The weather in my area was cloudy all day towards the afternoon, the rain started pouring about 5pm. The weather gradually changed. I was watching the weather and praying for mercy worshipping and praying all day. I was warning people on whatsapp it would be terrible. The messages Jesus gave sweet Clare was warnings, and plus the dream he gave me a week before. I dream of a hurricane and tsunami approaching my country, I was frantically looking for my kids, and there were dead bodies everywhere. Massive destruction all over I had just opened the church door and saw all these bodies. The time was 12 am that was the dream. I ask God to explain this he said it will be like Erica, your people won't be prepared, and so it came to pass.

Erica hit in 2015 but not everyone was affected. We lost lots of lives in various parts of the country, there was a previous hurricane a few days before and it missed us so it was a taken for granted then Erica came as a storm and destroy us. Hurricane maria came we were suppose to be hit by Irma but it by pass us and here comes hurricane Maria. Very much unexpected at the magnitude it hit. The actual hurricane September 18th 2017. At 6 pm the electricity went off. The rain poured heavily the gusty winds started, I was glued to the radio listening to every detail. I went to make some tea, I made a very thick tea of different types of cereals, the baby was asleep and then he awake. I anointed my family and prayed for life and only minor injuries. It was 8pm then I started hearing angry banging of galvanize. I told my soulmate this is scary, and then the radio announce we were at a category 4 hurricane!!!

Suddenly the station was lost at this time. The door was slammed open, I told my soulmate to bolt the door and if it opens again Jesus is giving a sign to get out immediately. Then it open he said whoa! The porch roof is gone so he said let's move now, he grab the baby and I took one son I told another to wait on the porch, but he followed I was not even aware but was happy he did. When we got to his sister home, which is a few steps away, I told him go back for the tea he said no turning back. Looking at the house it was already flat down. Literally in less than 5 minutes. We were at his sister house, our safe heaven as we thought. She was happy to see us and said she was praying we came over. We were sitting there, and just relaxing I grab a sheet and wrapped to be more protected and warm. It was another 5mins then things started getting wild and crazy. Doors were banging off, and glass windows was breaking. We knew the master bedroom was severely damaged, but we stayed put to the living room praying and thanking God for life. I was speaking boldly to Maria and telling her we would live to declare the glory of God and to tell of this testimony.

Then another loud scary bang, it was the roof and galvanize was flying everywhere. While water came rushing in from the heavy tormented rains, it was pouring in through the ceiling. Glass doors was bursting and flying out everywhere it was terrifying and traumatizing. Thank God the electricity was off, for we all stayed glued next to the main switch in one corner of the house, there were 9 of us packed there! Suddenly, another loud sound and we flew to the kitchen. That roof was still up its like we were playing hop Scotch in the house. The hurricane had us jumping from one place to another, all through the storm. I was being comforted through my phone. Thanks to sweet Clare again for teaching heart dwellers about Rhemas and using the Bible promises. Jesus gave me anxiety, fear, comfort, joy, and text to follow under it. While in the kitchen another loud bang, and the kitchen roof was gone. Glass windows started breaking then my kids aunt husband said remove the pots and pans and place the children in the kitchen cupboards.

This was terrifying especially for the kids, but there was no choice for they needed to be safe. They were placed there. The bigger boys were silent. My baby was screaming competing with the wind noise for he was hungry and water started falling on him in the cupboards, for he needed feeding. I grabbed a table and went under it and all adults were cramped under that same table. I manage to breastfeed him and placed a pot on my head for protection from the flying glass. It continued breaking windows. I manage to calm the baby down and we continued praying. This was scary, traumatizing, frightening, loud thunders and lightening accompanied the angry voices of the furious wind. I kept calm and was not afraid for God did not give me a spirit of fear, but of sound mind, and really was avoiding premature labor.

My faith was already on the rocks, for the year I felt what more could I get? It had been a terrible year for me. Very challenging indeed. So, I just claim Gods promises and hold on to his words and messages from his still small voice he gave. For life and death is in the power of the tongue. I was only praying for minor injuries but wondering when will it stop. I was praying for life for mercy and claiming Gods words from his Bible and all promises, even songs I was making to him at this point. It was approximately 9pm then the wind and noises started to subside it died down. What a relief, we were thrilled for we felt it was all over. We were not certain for it was said lately the hurricane was moving 10 miles per hour real slow we took no chances we quickly embrace the opportunity and got out. We went to a neighbor an x-police he had already ask my kids aunt to come over for company.

We went there walking on roofs and hurried to his downstairs. Thankful to God we had survived that monster Maria. When we arrive there about 9:10 pm we started asking another neighbor for clothes then while sending the clothes the angry voices of the winds started even stronger than before and the rain got heavier and wilder we were told this is now the eye or a change in eye-wall not even sure. Though I always had a passion for weather but not this trip. This was just too much torment and too scary. They place me in a room with the kids and the door burst open. The tin windows felt like they wanted to rip off the wall. I place a fridge behind the door then took my kids under another table. It was scary. Water was quickly rising up to my knee I knew I did not feel safe I told them I wanted to come over. My kids and I brace the fierce wind and move over to the middle room where we felt comforted. My baby and kids were soaking wet and I had no clothes, pampers, nothing for him. I manage to dry my baby and wrapped in another sheet. The kids fell asleep. My baby stayed up all night and was quiet, for he knew something was wrong. I comforted him by singing Jesus love me.

We were all Cramped in a upstairs and downstairs bed . The hurricane continue making fierce sounds. At 11 pm I told them those wind gust are so powerful it should be 200 mph. We prayed for people we knew we would hear of deaths, and this was more powerful than expected. We continue all night bailing out water to the bathroom and praying frantically for mercy, and praying for sunlight to come. At 4 pm our neighbor lost his roof and this was catastrophic just like my dream. We got up early for we never slept and when we came out reality struck. There were roofs on the streets. Still gusty winds was hurling. All roofs were turn over protruding up. We walk on those roof. Thank God we did not get hurt. There were damage everywhere. Houses were lost, roofs were gone, the trees were down, poles were down, big trees were uprooted.... Massive destruction was experience everywhere! Communication was down. People were flooded. Everyone, 95 % of the country gotten damage by Maria's wrath. One thing that baffles me is the anointing oil!..... It took NO damage, and the wall unit it was on was damaged, but my tablet in a case in a bag is totally smashed!! Jesus truly protect what is his Picture for proof.

I have to say that I believe anyone that comes to this channel and scoffs about it hasn't watched enough of what Jesus says to Sister Clare. YES I know Jesus speaks to her. I know Jesus is behind this channel 100%. If you will start surfing her Videos Jesus will send you the videos to watch. We are all individuals that Jesus loves very much. Please do not miss the chance to hear the words from Jesus thru sister Clare directly to you. Disclaimer... if you start this walk get your head right for it .... I compare it to a roller coaster ride. Truth is when you start surfing these (heartdwellerschannel) videos the adversary will come after you. Watch for these attacks and never, never under estimate the Dark side. I testify, if you seek here (heartdwellers), you will find.

Taylor 8.1.17

WOW!! Ok, so I wanted to flip through my journal and do a quick count, because I want to gather info so that I could be a part of this testimony video. I decided to flip through my journal and jot down on a separate piece of paper, the number of dreams, visions, etc. that I have experienced since being a part of the channel in the last 12 months, (and as a result learning to spend large chunks of time devoted just to intimacy & worship with the Lord.)
drum roll....

72 supernatural events!!

44 seeing events and/or open visions

4 hearing events(these were near audible interjections during thoughts or prayer& does not included all the countless times I have heard Him "speak" to me through rhemas)

2 warnings-one was a dream, one was a rhema

3 supernatural fragrances: vanilla twice, cloves once, roses once

7 supernatural dreams...not pizza dreams, and not regular work out our day stuff...VERY vivid spiritual dreams usually with Jesus in them, but once was satan(the time he got blown back when I screamed at him that he was a liar)

1 (7-hour) out of body experience!!

1 supernatural translocation!!

1 supernatural $500 deposit!!

2 supernatural cloud formations(one witnessed by my husband)

1 supernatural tree branch formation(stag of Israel)

1 physical glory cloud like thick fog in my living room during worship

2 supernatural music events: one was music playing in my house, but nothing was on!! , and the other was Audible angels singing over me

1 supernatural "helping hand" from angel to do something heavy I could not do. I knew I couldn't lift it, so prayed for help...I then tried hefting this heavy thing up on the hook and missed the hook ( I saw it miss and the hook swing back and forth), but it was hooked when brought my hands down and I looked back up 2 misc other events(too long to abbreviate here)

Wow! If this isn't ALSO a testimony of how we should all journal, I don't know what is!! I had no idea it was this many until I counted. And, many of these I had forgotten about, until I re-read them. God is good, and the fruits since being on the channel, are many! I remember back very early on, when I first found the channel, some negative videos came up on the side bar, and I thought, Hmm...better evaluate this...lotsa people saying bad stuff...then, I researched what they were saying, and went back and viewed the videos they were referencing, and they had twisted everything Clare had said. Not only that, I thought about how Jesus said a good tree bears good fruit, and all I could think about was how much GOOD FRUIT I had seen already, and that just sealed it for me.

So, just for a reference point...I just turned 50 this month, and in all those years, and a Pentecostal background since age 9, guess how many events I had experienced _in all those years_, prior to the channel? ..._only ONE supernatural hearing event, (ZERO visions),...IN MY WHOLE LIFE...It is just amazing to me...just amazing. So glad I have found this ministry and so thankful to be a part of this group!! My life is DRAMATICALLY different, since finding the channel...the flip side is that I've also experienced more heartache, testing and trials, enemy attacks, and persecution than ever in my life, not to mention fasted more than ever in my whole life, but it has ALL been worth it!! -Taylor

Hello Dearest Mother. Before I say anything I'd love to thank you from the bottom of my heart; 😊😊truly I owe you endless thanks Mother. See I was once so stepped in drugs and sin that there was no longer any hope for me but now my life is filled with endless bliss although at times I worry and lack faith; it was your channel that redeemed me to His arms. Through your inspirations a zeal was kindled within me and I wrote a book titled "lessons from nature" now it's complete and I'm working on my second manuscript; all this is also due to the awesome work you do for Him. Uh hm please include me in your prayers to find a publisher sooner than soon. Well if I were to express what your channel transpired in my life, we'd never come to and end so I'd like to- Kabelo Fidel Moloro

I'm so thankful for how the Lord helped Ezekiel. How sweet He is. He is always there helping us all. Always comes at the perfect timing and taking care of His children. I often pray for both of you and all that has anything to do with this channel. Without this channel and Jesus's teachings through you Clare, I wouldn't be as far as I am in my walk with Him. He is all we will ever need!! How much it means to me that he lead me to this channel a little over two years ago. I don't know what I would do without this channel in my life. I have really been taught alot, I've came to love you guys like family and never even met you once. You guys truly mean alot to me. Thanks to Jesus and all that has anything to do with this

channel. #GodsChangingLivesThruYou #MuchLoveAndHugs

Dear Clare and Ezekiel, how do I thank you? If I wouldn't have heard your messages I would still be a big and huge mediocre believer. I went to a lot of churches, but never, I really never learned so much like I am learning here. I learned in leaps when I started to meet my Lord Jesus Christ in the deep soaking dwelling prayer. Everything you taught with the guide of J.C. and Holy Spirit is true....I am having attacks even in my dwelling prayer...even the Lord says to me, come back to me, come always back to me..(when my thoughts goes abroad) You are always in our prayers. Everyone here in this channel is in my prayers... Go ahead , your teaching is pure gold! I understood that to be a believer in Jesus Christ is hard work. Always checking your thoughts and steps. One foot to another, one foot to another, watching the Face of the Lord till we die, or our groom comes. love you

Family, many of you know that my husband is now the director of the orphanage in which he grew up (the Baptist Children's Village of Mississippi). We have been traveling just about every week-end so that he can preach/speak about the orphanage in many Baptist churches in Mississippi. it has been a wonderful, exhausting, spirit-filled adventure!

This past Saturday we were traveling to North Mississippi and it started raining really hard. We suddenly came upon a wreck that had just occurred. A truck and a trailer were in the median as was a car that had been turned upside down. You could tell that the accident had just happened because we were one of the first to stop to help.

My husband, Sean, immediately called 911 and let them know the location of the wreck (10 miles from the nearest town). Then he ran to see if he could help. The people in the truck were bruised up, but they were fine. However, there was a badly injured man still in the car. Meanwhile, I was still in our car by the side of the road- under orders not to get out. It was very hard to see because the rain was still pouring down in sheets. I had no idea if anyone was still in that car, but I just felt that there WAS someone in there and that they were going to die. So, I started singing the Mercy Chaplet... I sang it and sang it and sang it.

Sean told me later that two ladies had also stopped to help and they were kneeling down beside the young man in the car. He was literally laying on the roof of his vehicle. Sean found a shirt and they put it around his arm as a tourniquet. A doctor who was also passing by stopped and came over just as the young man died. Sean thinks that he must have had severe internal injuries. The experience was so horrible, so traumatic...but I know that the Lord had us there so that I could PRAY for his soul as it left him and so that he would not die all by himself- he had two, sweet Mississippi mamas talking to him and comforting him as he lay there.

Sean prayed a prayer over him as he passed away. I feel such a PEACE (and felt it so strongly even just after it happened) that the young man is with our Jesus right now. Anyway, I wanted you all to know and to share in this with me as I would have never in a million years have known to pray the Mercy Chaplet in such a situation before the Lord led me to this ministry.

How I praise Him for His goodness to us. I love you all, Elly

Hi Sister Clare. I just wanted to take a moment and let you know how much your messages have changed our lives. We started watching your channel about 6 months ago, first time really watching anyone on Youtube. My husband and I were stuck and watched most all your previous messages and continue to follow. We have been long time Christians but really didn't get active in the church until about 10 years ago. We gave a lot of time to the church and felt we were really growing spiritually. However, the past 6 months we have grown more than in the past 6 yrs I think listening your teachings. We made a difficult choice to come out of the lukewarm church a view months ago and started helping the homeless with food and Bibles. WE feel closer to Jesus than ever!! We so appreciate your heart for the Lord, the time to give these teachings; and you are changing lives!! Thank you my sister!! We keep you in our prayers and may God bless you in every way!! LOVE YOU!! The Parkers

I was broken. As a child I knew I was different, I felt I was out of place, I remembered JESUS. As a teenager, I sought the attention of pleasing my parents. I tried to kill myself but no one noticed, I remembered JESUS. When I became an adult and left home, I sought love and attention from the World, I remembered JESUS. I married, had children, joined a Church and yet I became a dead woman walking. I tried to kill myself, No one noticed, I remembered JESUS.

Being a mother gave me a purpose. So, I thrived and still lived a lie. I functioned with a smile on my face as if everything was alright. I tried to be someone I was not and my life left me (Bitter, angry and confused). I went to Church, worked, provided and took care of my family but I was lost, I forgot JESUS. I tried to seek comfort in the world, I tried to make everyone happy, I tried to be what I thought was pleasing to the world and yet I was existing on reserve. I was blind in denial and defeated. How could this be?

I kept the house spotless, I took great care of the children and husband and I worked. The American dream of a house with a white picket fence, station wagon and a dog, eluded me. I suffered and so did my family. I loved JESUS and JESUS loved me. I sung in the choir, went to Church even professing and proclaiming my faith, belief and trust in the Kingdom of GOD, but still felt I was incomplete. I took JESUS and his many blessings for GRANTED. The children (grown and moved on ), and husband (divorce) were gone. I felt so all along and at a standstill, I was just existing. Life had no meaning or purpose. I remembered JESUS and CRIED OUT to HIM with a SINCERE heart. JESUS remembered ME, JESUS showed UP. JESUS showed me myself in his mirror and it wasn't pretty. I'd asked Abba Heavenly Father to show me myself and he did.

I WAS BROKEN.... I WAS GUILTY, ASHAMED, DEFEATED and EXHAUSTED. I was on the VERGE of a MIRACLE breakthrough in my LIFE but I had to do something FIRST... I SURRENDERED ALL to JESUS. I confessed my sins of having lived a ( prideful, arrogant, think she could do it better, know it all, self conceited, worthless, damning, straight-to-hell in every direction but up ) life. This was a heart-wrenching, soul-searching process that only JESUS could ( restore, deliver, forgive, renew, purify, change, receive, love, wash, feed) and so much more.

This truly comes by fasting and praying. Everything that I lost that my will gave up to the enemy, JESUS took back. MY ( heart, mind, body, soul ), and yes my relationships. I can't thank Abba Heavenly Father enough for JESUS. I used to be that, but JESUS (shaped, molded, sealed ) and rescued me back to our Father and his Love; according to his WILL for my life.

Now, I'm the Woman who tells everybody about the man who can SAVE anybody. I once was lost but now I'm found was blind but now I see. JESUS rescued me and woke me up. JESUS turned my Life around and placed my feet on solid ground. JESUS just good like that. What he's done for me, he will do for you. He is truly a wonderful FRIEND and Shepherd. JESUS set me FREE.....

Clare and Heartdwellers, Holy Spirit brought me to this channel on 5/3/16. I was very concerned about the rapture at that point as most of us were. On 3/18 a day before your message where Jesus mentioned the rapture delay, I wrote this in my journal: "I hadn't thought for a while about the rapture and I have been thinking that life will go on as normal, but in a little over 2 years this will all be over so time is short. So don't worry about retirement or my oldest being in college because time is short." It was amazing to hear Jesus mention the rapture delay just a day after I wrote it. This is why this, you, and this channel are so important because it is another confirmation that I have been hearing from Him.

Currently the Lord has pruned me from my job on 6/23/16 and kept me with him and turning down many lucrative job offers as an electrical engineer that come my way because of His Promises that He gave me back in August. I trusted in him and I am living on my retirement and trusting in His Will for my life. The more I get attacked, the stronger I become. Jesus has built me up so much over these past months in patience and perseverance. Mainly because I spend at a minimum of 3-4 hours of worship and contemplation with Him. Then I journal quite extensively and if an enemy attack comes my way, Jesus can bring me to the exact journal entries needed to settle my soul and assure me of His Promises. He actually does this almost daily as kind of a puzzle for our fellowship time together (He likes to play with his kids too!).

The journaling has been an incredible investment since it has teachings and truth of progress for myself and my 4 boys ages 8-18. These guys were my main source of teaching as Jesus pruned the world out of me using Luke 6:40 "The student is not above the teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like their teacher." and Luke 6:44 "Each tree is recognized by its own fruit." I saw the patterns of my family (parents, grandparents) and how I was not following love and rebuked each item. Then as I saw things wrong in my boys, I first looked at myself (the tree).

I got the first part of my breakthrough miracle yesterday where my fiance contacted me for the first time in over six months. Her and I had been separated and have not spoken since September except for some flowers and a letter that I was lead to write. This was a slow and painful process of patience and learning to following Jesus' lead. I knew that our relationship was a sacrifice for our country. I would never have been able to go this long with no control, no insight except for the encouragement, teaching and dreams that were given to me. I was given the gift of faith and courage and this channel was a huge part of that because things would happen to me and then I would hear about it through you. Everyone press in and pray for courage, perseverance and thankfulness for the trails. Have that childlike faith to listen him speaking through anything and everything. And know that He is in control (that's my biggest reminder phrase now "You are in control Lord")! - Dave W

What a wonderful message. Just for that, another comment for you. I have been fighting hard on the mountain of holiness. Listening to your channel for almost 2 years now, or maybe one and a half, I can't remember. Anyways, this channel has changed my life exponentially; It has given me a whole new Foundation. It spreads to others while bringing me deeper into prayer.

Not just any prayer, really spending time with the Lord. Things have been changing about myself. I never realized the layers of sin I was in bondage to. Being negative, or talking about someone else or even listening to it. The way I would lose my temper especially when driving. Now I am getting active with the gifts Lord has given me. I made a YouTube channel it is (HarvestOutreachf.g.c.) Clare maybe you and Carol could listen sometimes. It's me, my son, and my dad singing and preaching. We started going out on the street to pray for people. It's called the Cardboard Box Church, another minister in North Carolina showed me how to do it.

We have a small Church in a poor part of town. We only have about 15 members; of which only about six or seven go because of sickness. My dad has been a pastor for 39 years and I have been in church all my life. However, I didn't have a real relationship with Jesus. I didn't do things that were bad just because I didn't want to go to hell. Which led to me to do bad things all the time. Since I've listened to your Channel, the Lord has changed so many things in my life. I'm working for the Lord and the reason I don't do wrong is because I don't want to hurt him or disappoint him. I don't want to cheat on him with the Devil. Nevertheless, the devil knows the level of condemnation that he can put on me. He also plays on my loneliness and tries to give me depression. Since my car accident, where Jesus spared me and my youngest son's life. I lost my career and went on full disability.

Still, the Lord turned it into a positive. Now I can go into the ministry full time, I just have to get my Holiness right because it isn't right for me to be trying to lead people when I can't lead myself. I love the Lord with a deep passion but it is a war. I cherish you and your husband and Carol and your Channel and everybody on here. Satan plays on my loneliness because I can't relate to most people I used to Know. I had a friend come by the other day which was undoubtedly a test. He wanted to go drink and gamble as usual, and I started talking to him about Jesus.

I told him that I didn't judge him and that he is still my friend, but I don't do those things anymore. Also, I was talking to him about the Street Ministry and it was really nice.

He gave his heart to the Lord here a while back while we were talking, and he's trying to get on track. I pray for him hard, and I realize that prayer makes a big difference. Especially when I intercede for people. I know this was crazy long but I just wanted you to know what you guys mean to me. God bless you and I'm praying for you every day. I never miss a message, and I've never heard or listened to one video that bashes your Channel., love Russell.

Son Of Jesus1 3.21.17

Same same same I was really really lost and wandering and totally in fear of Hell. I was saved a year and a half ago. I was just walking into my salvation and out of total fear, gave my life to Christ after hearing Hell. But it distorted the view I had of him. Well then GOD must of really felt bad for me because he led me. I don't know how, but I clicked on the still small voice channel and like was totally and utterly blown away by the amount of Love and Truth to that channel.

I was so drawn and pulled and I fell head over heels for GOD on the same day or the next day I was in a panic attack because of a video about Hell which I was crying and sobbing and totally afraid to do anything. Before that I was told GOD doesn't like this and that and how he hated homosexuals and if I was raped he wouldn't help or save me because he doesn't love gays . That left a stain in my heart and brought utter low self-esteem and self hatred. You know, not only man hates me, but so does GOD, so I thought. But the witnesses around me had no life in them either or any power in them either.

I now know that it was just wolves in sheep clothing from the result of lack of understanding on their part and no intimacy with GOD. I mean how could anybody hate him or not love him? He was liquidating my heart when I heard his voice and I openly became spiritually alive, REALLY SAVED, and my perspective about him and life changed drastically. I was attacked by dreams and family members going crazy. Financial problems, jobless, the enemy was so angry and then GOD delivered me out of that situation.

My love love for him had skyrocketed and btw, I started reading the word that I haven't read before. Oh how Satan has perverted the image of GOD and the opinions of his nature. I thank GOD. Anyway I have been told by the church members how she (Clare) was false without them even watching her, but listened to lies and gossip through someone else. I went to GOD and he has confirmed to me more than 3 times that Clare is a true child of God. Anyway I am NEVER EVER leaving her channel. I have been there 2 years and also accused of witchcraft and the word constantly confirms the messages as truth, and Holy Spirit really is speaking to the audience. And I am so happy sister that you have grown beyond ever before. Continue the race and get your crown on :D

Through all the struggles and hardships, I find I am consistently drawn to this channel every day. I will admit that after the 3 year delay was announced, I fell apart both mentally and spiritually because I based my life around the rapture. However, I continued to still listen in and am now learning to apply myself. I have started some guitar songs, more prayer and worship time and have started really listening to Julie True.

Yes, there is major opposition every day to anything I want to do for the Lord, but I know its because the evil spirits want to destroy me while I'm down. Yesterday I got bored and played some Wii for a couple hours which just ended in sadness and a sense of wasted time. Just now, I was listening to Julie True and got instantly distracted with my moms tax return and got all antsy and bored when trying to return to worship.

I think I'm really starting to understand the warfare better now. If I really wanted to I could give up and drink a lot every night and spend lots of time looking into worldly mysteries and rapture puzzles but I know where that would lead. While I still greatly desire the rapture, I recognize the importance of working for the kingdom and that there really is hope for peace, joy and enrichment at some point in the near future before the major war breaks out. I have (sadly) even had christian friends try and tell me not to listen in but I am 100% sure the Lord is speaking and will never leave.

God's Work in Progress 3.21.17

While I am not able to super hear our Lord or see Him in visions as others, etc., Jesus has used this ministry to greatly blessed me by teaching me through His messages to Clare to seek Him day by day and with His help, deny myself, pick up my cross and follow Him. Also, He has helped me greatly in accepting trials in my life as something I can offer Him , instead of whining and complaining over everything that doesn't go my way. I see now how all things permitted in our lives are not only for our own highest good, but also for the good of others through Jesus.

I've also benefited by discovering that Jesus actually loves each one of us individually.. and that there is no need for jealousy because we are each special to Him in our own individual way..

I also love the encouragement He has given through Clare and Ezekiel that we can have an intimate relationship with Him.. and not just be a dutiful Christian., but a Christian who serves Jesus out of love for Him. hugs, lisa .. God's Work in Progress ♥

Hello Heartdwellers, I have a big testimony of how Jesus delivered me last night. I was having a chat with my flatmate and all of a sudden, I felt dizzy and really terrible. it was so bad that I felt I was about to collapse but I didn't mentioned it to my flatmate, I just said goodnight to her cos it was late anyway.

I entered my room and just collapsed on my bed and it got worst with feverish feeling. I felt out of it and heard some noise in my ears. I remember saying to myself, oh I think my spiritual senses are more heightened now. The pain which was causing dizziness moved to my abdomen in an excruciating pain and I kept saying, Lord, I offer this pain as a sacrifice with thanksgiving and thank you for allowing me to share your suffering. I started feeling like I need to go to the washroom so when the dizziness went down, I went cos it was opposite my room but it got worse. Now, I am vomiting as well, and freezing cold and very weak, I couldn't breathe so I had my mouth opened and am sweating and cold at the same time.. Then it dawn on me to call for help cos now I felt like I was dying. And I said, Jesus help me. Then I saw Jesus coming and he looks like he felt sorry for me, and He knelt on the bathroom floor when I had threw myself there and picked me up by my shoulders and put me on His lap rocking me as a child. And I said to Him, Jesus, look at me, I am a mess and nothing and lifeless without you. No word but He kept rocking me and I fell asleep.

I woke in a mess I have made in the bathroom with no pain, no dizziness and able to get up and clean myself and the bathroom and went to bed without anyone knowing what had happened to me. My experience was peace and trust that, whatever happens, I could rest in His love for me. The last I experienced this attack, I haven't met heartdwellers yet and I knew I was dying and very scared and crying that I may never see my family again and they will never know what happened to me.

Even then, The Lord rescued me. If Heartdwellers has been June brides and raptured then, myself and those who joined after the delay wouldn't had a chance for our lives to be changed by Jesus. So please, let's be busy about souls and bring more like myself to Jesus with the help of The Holy Spirit. And praise The Lord with me, for He is good and His mercies endures forever....Amen.

Beautiful! Really love your previous instrumental. My kids have gone through an unsettled phase of not being able to "switch off" to fall asleep. I tried that instrumental for them to listen to as they fell asleep. They loved it! Have asked for it on several occasions since. BTW, I've been listening to Clare for almost 2 years now have have grown in my relationship with Jesus enormously! My husband, although initially skeptical, now listens has has grown also. My motive not to sin is now my love for Jesus rather than wondering why I couldn't just force myself to live God's way. A revelation to me!! Thanks you so much Clare, Ezekiel, Carol & team! J - Joy
