All Day Chicken

- 2 tablespoons Frozen OJ
- 2 cups Chicken stock
- 1 teaspoon Salt
- 1/4 teaspoon Pepper
- 1/2 cup Tomato paste
- 2 tablespoons Soy sauce
- 2 tablespoons Brown sugar
- 2 Cloves garlic, minced
- 1 dash Allspice
- Remaining ingredients:
- 4 pounds Chicken, breasts and thighs
- 1/4 pound Mushrooms, sliced
- 2 tablespoons Margarine or butter
- 11 ounces (1 can) mandarin orange sections, drained
- 1/2 Of a medium–large bell pepper, sliced lengthwise
- 1/4 teaspoon Ground ginger
- 3 tablespoons Cornstarch
- 1/4 cup Cold milk
- 1/4 cup Cold water

Marinade: The night before you plan on slow cooking your dinner, mix together the marinade ingredients in a large, closable container large enough to also hold the chicken pieces. When marinade is thoroughly mixed, add the chicken, close container and refrigerate until morning. In the morning place the chicken in the slow cooker and add marinade up to about an inch from the top of the container. Set the cooker on low and cover. 6 to 8 hours later, turn the cooker to high. About an hour later, saute the sliced mushrooms in the margarine or butter. Then add the mushrooms (with pan juices), mandarin sections, green pepper and ginger into the slow cooker and stir thoroughly. Mix together the cornstarch, milk and cold water, then gradually add into the slow cooker while stirring until the entire mixture thickens a bit. Re-cover the slow cooker and let simmer for 15 to 30 minutes until serving. Serve with baby carrots and small new potatoes.

All-Day-Long Crockpot Beef

- 1–1/2 pounds beef roast, * see note
- 1/2 teaspoon black pepper
- 2 garlic cloves, minced
- 1/2 package onion soup mix
- 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
- 1 teaspoon steak sauce
- 3 carrots, sliced
- 2 celery stalks, diced
- 1 green bell pepper, chopped
- 1 yellow onion
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 cup tomato juice

* Use any cut of beef roast desired. 1. Cut beef roast into serving-sized portions. Use more beef if you need more than 6 servings. Brown beef in a bit of vegetable oil, although you can skip this step if rushed for time. 2. Slice onion and separate into rings. Dice the peeled carrots, dice the celery and slice the peppers into thin strips or circles. Place these into bottom of crockpot. Sprinkle the beef pieces with fresh ground black pepper, minced garlic and the onion soup mix. Place on top of the vegetables. 3. Mix the steak sauce and Worcestershire sauce in a small bowl with about 1/2 cup water and 1/2 cup tomato juice. Pour this over the meat. 4. Turn the crockpot to high for 30 minutes, or, if you're in a hurry, skip this step. Turn to low, cover and cook for 7–9 hours. * Keep the crockpot covered as much as possible throughout cooking time. A crockpot can be used to cook this type of meal for a varied amount of time, depending on your schedule. It is not important that you take the meat and vegetables out at a specific amount of time. One or two hours either way usually makes no difference. When ready to serve, dip meat and vegetables out of pot with a slotted spoon. Use the liquid as is or turn crockpot to high and thicken liquid with a little flour or cornstarch.

Amish–Style Chicken And Corn Soup

- 1 tablespoon Parsley, fresh chopped
- 1 cup Egg noddles, cooked

Combine stewing hen with chicken stock, coarsely chopped onions, carrots, celery, and saffron threads. Bring the stock to a simmer. Simmer for about 1 hour, skimming the surface as necessary. Remove and reserve the stewing hen until cool enough to handle; then pick the meat from the bones. Cut into neat little pieces. Strain the saffron broth through a fine sieve. (Note: The soup can be made through this step in advance. Simply refrigerate broth and diced chicken meat for 2 to 3 days, or freeze the broth and the chicken meat in separate convenient sized containers. Be sure to label and date them. To use, defrost, remove congealed fat, return the broth full boil, and add the diced meat. Continue with recipe.) Add the corn, celery, parsley, and cooked noodles to the broth. - 1/2 cup Parsley; fresh, minced
- 1 teaspoon Salt
- 1/4 teaspoon Pepper
- 2 Eggs, slightly beaten
- 1 pound Bottom round of beef, cut into 16 thin slices, 4" square
- Salt,pepper,thyme–grnd, flour
- 4 tablespoons Butter or margarine
- 1 cup Water, warm
- 2 Garlic cloves; medium
- Peeled and crushed
- 2 tablespoons Mustard;White Dijon, prepared

To Cook: In a heavy skillet, over medium–low heat, melt 2 tablespoons of butter and saute the onion and mushrooms until the onion is translucent. Stir in the lemon rind, bread crumbs, parsley, 1 teaspoon salt, and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. When the parsley has wilted ~ about 1 minute after you add it to the skillet – quickly stir in the eggs to bind the mixture and remove skillet from the heat at once. Set aside. With a rolling pin or a wooden mallet, flatten the beef pieces until each is very thin and about twice its original size. As you finish each piece, season it with a little salt, pepper, and a pinch of thyme. At the widest end of each beef slice, place 1 teaspoon of bread–crumb mixture from the skillet. Roll up the meat, sausage–shape, and secure it with a wooden toothpick through the center. Roll each piece in flour. In a very large skillet, over medium– high heat, melt 4 tablespoons of butter and brown the pieces of beef. As you finish, place them in the slow–cooker. Pour the water into the skillet; scrape up the pan juices and turn the sauce into the cooker. Cover and cook on Low for about 5 hours. Before serving: About half an hour before serving, mix the garlic and mustard into the sauce around the beef; cover; turn the heat to High, and cook for 30 minutes. If the sauce seems less flavorful than you like, about 5 minutes before serving add a dab of prepared mustard and a little salt. If the sauce seems thin, leave the cover off during the second cooking period.

Peanut Stuffed Chicken Breast

- 12 Chicken breasts, boned
- 1/2 cup Peanut butter
- 1/8 cup Honey
- 1 teaspoon Cumin
- 1 tablespoon Mint, dried
- 1 package G. Washington's Golden, bouillon mix

Bone chicken breasts if needed, keeping meat as nearly intact as possible. (It's much easier to rip the meat off the bones than any knifework I've tried to date.) Pull off shreds and gobbets. Put peanut butter, honey, cumin and mint in a bowl and mix well. Microwaving for 30 seconds or so thins it and makes it much easier to mix. Spread about 2 tsp of the peanut butter mix in a thin layer over each piece of breast meat. Place 1/12 of the shreds and gobbets on the breast and roll them up into a packet. Tie the packet shut with butcher's twine or fasten with a toothpick. Arrange the twelve packets in layers in the crock pot, being careful not to let any fall open. Stir water in to the bowl with any remaining peanut butter and mix well. Add the packet of bouillon and pour over the chicken packets. Add water as needed to cover packets to a depth of at least one inch. Turn crock pot on high for 5 or 6 hours. Remove packets from pot and let drain on a platter. All the chicken fat will have migrated to the top of the liquid, which I suspect would probably make a wonderful flavoring for soups and other dishes.
