

Nicole Lisa Craig

Nicole is a passionate musician who lends her angelic voice to ENTERTAIN, INSPIRE, and LIFT people to a better state of mind. Her performances feature ethereal vocals and smooth guitar picking, blending elements of Indie Folk, Classical, New Age, and Underground Pop.

Nicole's three studio albums have been added to over 150 radio stations across North America, South America, Australia, and Europe with her track "City at dusk" hitting #1 on the 2017 charts Q108 Kingston.

Nicole has been the featured act in places like The Orillia Opera House, Winterfolk Festival, Niagara Lavender Festival, West Plains Church, Old Church Theatre, Utopia Hall, Hensal Hall, Chelsea Community Hall, Acton Town hall, Lindsay Academy Theatre, Algonquin Theatre, Pinnacle Theatre, and many other venues.

Highlight of Nicole's career are opening for Canadian Folk Legend Valdy. She is also blessed to have Rick Dutkiewicz Haynes (Gordon Lightfoot's bassist) and David Henman (Co-founder of April Wine) perform with her.

"Nicole has been blessed with a voice, a sensitivity, a creativeness and ability to touch one's soul"

- Ken "the General" Grant,
580 AM CFRA, Ottawa

"Nicole Lisa Craig displays a distinctive ethereal voice"

- Jim Marino
93.3 CFMU, Hamilton

"Soft yet powerful...motivational and uplifting...listening to Nicole's powerful vocals is reminiscent of the Joni Mitchell and Joan Baez days."

- Randy Skaggs,
Q108FM and author at IMC magazine

"Highly melodic motifs on a lush sounding classical guitar, she plays and sings with conviction and authority. Clearly, she is a seasoned performer."

- David Henman,
Co-founder of April Wine

"I've had the pleasure of accompanying Nicole on several shows over the last year. Nicole brings a charming warmth to her shows."

- Rick Dutkiewicz Haynes,
Gordon Lightfoot's bassist
