Federal Hill

FOOD TOUR

Benvenuti!

Food & History Walking Tour is a 2 AND ½ hours walking tour consisting of visits to food shops, bakeries, wine store & the people who maintain the legacy of this unique historic settlement in the heart of Providence Rhode Island. Presentation of Federal Hill history, anecdotes and food talk, designed to enlighten you with the most knowledge and culture. Chef Walter will also give you valuable info on olive oil varieties, Balsamic, Pasta, Rice and products purchase. Meet Chefs, Bakers, Merchants and Historians. Full immersion in Italian food culture, history and lifestyle

Typical day

The tour will begin at Garibaldi Park located under the arch at the entrance of Atwells Avenue in Providence. Join Master Chef and Historian, Walter Potenza, in the discovery of great foods and history of Federal Hill in Providence. Our Premiere Food Tour will take you to different locations where you will be sampling Cheeses, Charcuterie, and Antipasti, while receiving a presentation on ingredients present in the repertoire of Italian Cookery. You will also learn food terminology, products information, how to shop, how to store foods and anything that may be of interest in expanding your culinary horizon.

Throughout the walking event you will meet the people who make it possible for Federal Hill to be recognized as a food and historical destination in the USA. Your walking tour will end at Chef Walters Cooking School where Chef Walter will present an "Olive Oil & Balsamic Tasting", and a taste of the "Wine of the Day!"

After the tasting you will visit the Federal Hill Heritage Center Photo Exhibit of the first and only early Italian Immigration collection in Rhode Island located at 286 Atwells Avenue.
