El Dorado Rod & Gun Club is an all volunteer organization. All of our Range Safety Officers volunteer their time and knowledge in support of the club.

Club membership gives you the benefit of being a supporter of the only controlled, safe shooting facility in El Dorado County. Range fees are discounted through club membership and it is because of your support as a member that we can continue to run our facility. If you are not a member please consider joining today to help support the only true organization in El Dorado County that supports your rights to own firearms as well as supplying a location for you to safely practice with your firearms. Thank you for your support.
