

INTROIT - the entrance Psalm of worship

Psalm 25, Zechariah 9

P Behold, your King | comes to you, *
righteous and having sal- | vation.

G To you, O LORD, I lift | up my soul. ***
O my God, in you I trust; let me not be | put to shame.

P Let not my enemies exult | over me. *
Indeed, none who wait for you shall be | put to shame.

G Make me to know your ways, | O LORD; ***
teach me | your paths.

P Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of
my sal- | vation; *
for you I wait all the | day long.

G May integrity and uprightness pre- | serve me, ***
for I | wait for you.

P Redeem Israel, | O God, *
out of all his | troubles.

COLLECT OF THE DAY - ancient prayer of the Church based upon the Scriptural theme of the day

P Stir up Your power, O Lord, and come, that by Your protection we may be rescued from the threatening perils of our sins and saved by Your mighty deliverance; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

G Continued with sung 'Amen', p. 189

OLD TESTAMENT Isaiah 64:1-9 Isaiah speaks of God's power in His presence; despair over how so many have turned away from God and a plea for help.

Oh that you would rend the heavens and come down, that the mountains might quake at your presence--- as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil--- to make your name known to your adversaries, and that the nations might tremble at your presence! When you did awesome things that we did not look for, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence.
From of old no one has heard or perceived by the ear, no eye has seen a God besides you, who acts for those who wait for him. You meet him who joyfully works righteousness, those who remember you in your ways.

Behold, you were angry, and we sinned; in our sins we have been a long time, and shall we be saved? We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a polluted garment. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. There is no one who calls upon your name, who rouses himself to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have made us melt in the hand of our iniquities. But now, O LORD, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand. Be not so terribly angry, O LORD, and remember not iniquity forever. Behold, please look, we are all your people.

GRADUAL - ancient seasonal response to hearing God's Word

Zechariah 9; Psalm 118

P Behold Your King | comes to you, *
righteous and having sal- | vation.

G Blessed is He who comes in the name | of the Lord. ***
From the house of the Lord we | bless You.

EPISTLE 1 Corinthians 1:3-9 He will keep you to the end

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that was given you in Christ Jesus, that in every way you were enriched in him in all speech and all knowledge-- even as the testimony about Christ was confirmed among you-- so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift, as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will sustain you to the end, guiltless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

HOLY GOSPEL Mark 11:1-10 Jesus entry into Jerusalem

Now when they drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the village in front of you, and immediately as you enter it you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord has need of it and will send it back here immediately.'" And they went away and found a colt tied at a door outside in the street, and they untied it. And some of those standing there said to them,
"What are you doing, untying the colt?" And they told them what Jesus had said, and it, and he sat on it. And many spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. And those who went before and those who followed were shouting, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the highest!"

Risen Savior Lutheran Church

The Lutheran Church Missouri Synod - Basehor, Kansas

1st Sunday in Advent

Nov. 29, 2020

Welcome to the Lord's House. The Lord Comes in Meekness and Humility to Save Us. Although we pray God "would rend the heavens and come down" (Is. 64:1), that He would act against our enemies, we ourselves "have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a polluted garment;" we have continued in our sins for "a long time, and shall we be saved?" (Is. 64:5,6). Yet, the Lord does not punish us in anger. He comes in meekness and humility to save us by His grace. Just as He once came into Jerusalem to sacrifice Himself for us upon the cross (Mark 11:4-8), He still comes to His Church with the fruits of His Passion. By His ministry of the Gospel, we are "enriched in him in all speech and all knowledge," and so He will "sustain you to the end" (1 Cor. 1:5, 8).

Advent Season prepares us for the coming of our Lord. Paraments are blue, a color of royalty, as He is our King, also a color of sorrow. This is a penitential season for special devotions and repentance; though not as solemn as during Lent; thus "Alleluia's" are retained even though the "Gloria in Excelsis" or "Hymn of Praise" are omitted. The Lord bless this Divine Service.

Hosanna
to the Son of David!
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Hosanna
highest!

We celebrate the Lord's Supper today, in the confession, as Jesus says, our Lord gives into our mouths not only bread, wine but His very real, true body, blood to eat, drink for the forgiveness of sins and to strengthen our union with Him, and with one another. According to Scripture, Holy Communion is also a public confession of faith, sharing a unity in doctrinal belief; also those who eat, drink our Lord's body, blood unworthily or without discernment do so to their harm. In love towards God and our neighbor, according to Scripture, the Church has always practiced a closed communion. Therefore, in love and pastoral concern for our guests, if you are not a member of the LCMS and desire to receive the Sacrament, please speak with the pastor first.
