

The Dharma Horses & their stories

Handsome Andy

Andy came from a loving home where the children had outgrown him. He was a riding and driving pony and Katharine had hoped to be able to drive her Mum around in the cart (heart disease had limited her Mum's life, once a rider, K thought the pony could cheer her). Andy is a brave soul, K drove him in the 4th of July, night parade and day time parades, giving joy to all who participated (the DH tribe) and who saw him. We are also able to teach driving skills to students which we find particularly enhancing to the equestrian skill "tool box".
