

Gregg Riddle Memorial Scholarship

1. What information do I need to send with the application and written narrative?

You must make sure that your written narrative also covers your career goals and how attending the IPSTA conference would enhance those goals. Make sure to follow these guidelines, or you will be disqualified:

- The application must be filled out entirely
- Submit a resume
- A letter of recommendation is needed from your employer, and the writer must fully disclose their relationship to the applicant.

2. Who is eligible to receive this scholarship? This scholarship is open to all current NENA and APCO chapter members, who have at least one full year of membership (prior to the date of the scholarship application).

3. How much is the scholarship? The scholarship amount may vary from year to year, but the amount of the scholarship for 2016 will cover the hotel, conference registration and travel at IRS mileage rate.

4. How can I apply for this scholarship? Print the application form, fill it out, add the required attachments and return it to John Kelly, 1804 North Naper Blvd, Suite 350, Naperville, IL 60563.

5. Who decides the winner? The Gregg Riddle Scholarship Committee will review all of the applications and decide the winners. The Scholarship Committee is made up of the following:

John Kelly, JD, ENP – At Large Representative

David Riddle, brother of Gregg Riddle

Al Marquardt representing IL APCO

Jodi Moomaw, RPL representing IL NENA

Sherrill Ornberg, RPL, ENP representing PSAP Concepts & Solutions, LLC

6. The application form will be available on www.psapconcepts.com, the IL NENA and IL APCO websites starting in May of 2016 and must be post marked by June 30, 2016. The award will be granted by August 1, 2016.
