

BEATRICE L. FOREMAN

1914-1998

Beatrice L. Foreman, 84 of Hastings and former Sebewaing resident, passed away Sunday, June 28, 1998, at Pennock Hospital.

She was born Jan. 8, 1914, in Hastings, daughter of the late Frank and Grace (Ellison) Carpenter.

She and Muryl E. Foreman were married July 17, 1936. He preceded her in death on June 29, 1988.

Mrs. Foreman was raised and attended school in the Sebewaing area, graduating from the Class of 1932 at Sebewaing High School.

She was a homemaker and a member of the First United Methodist Church, Ruth Circle of the church, long-time member of the church "Out-Reach" program, member of the Missionary Society, member of the "Jolly Jills" Hobby Club. She was an avid handicrafter especially crocheting baby bibs, booties and afghans for family and friends. She also enjoyed plastic canvas needlework.

Survivors include her daughter, Patricia Fox of Hastings; three grandchildren, Michael "Tony" Armour of Nottawa, Laura (Dennis) Todd of Nashville, and Christopher Fox of Kentwood; 10 great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; one sister, Mary Baker of California; one sister-in-law, Violet Foreman, Hastings. She was preceded in death by one brother, Claude Carpenter.

Memorial services for Mrs. Foreman was conducted Wednesday, July 1 at Hastings First United Methodist Church with Rev. Bufford W. Coe, officiating, with burial in Rutland Township Cemetery, Barry County.

Arrangements were conducted by the Wren Funeral Home, Hastings.

Memorials may be made to the American Heart Association or American Lung Association.