Exalted Ruler Message

Happy New Year. I hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas and Happy New Year. And that you and your family stayed safe and healthy this holiday season.

We had a beautiful Memorial service on the 5th of December if you were not able to attend we recognized 84 of our departed members for the years 2020 and 2021.

Our next event will be the Sweetheart Ball in February. See the Elks Tale for more details. I hope you can make plans to attend. I hope the New Year is better for the Lodge in gaining more new members and that we can continue to improve on the financial aspects of the Lodge and improve on our accounting transformation to quick books and with Grand Lodge. I hope to see all our members at the Lodge or come in for a meeting. You are the ones who can help the Lodge become bigger and better in 2022.

Now is the time if you have been thinking about becoming an officer in the Lodge to come in and talk to me or Nancy Hannah or any of the officers to ask questions about what is involved for that position and the rewards of being an officer in our Lodge for the upcoming year. Remember to come in and sign up to volunteer for any of the upcoming Friday and Saturday night dinners or any events that you are interested in.

Last but not least, I want to say THANK YOU to all of the volunteers and officers who have helped throughout last year with all the events we have had without you our Lodge would not be doing as good as we are doing and continuing to grow in membership.

Exalted Ruler
