Office of the Dean

"If the statistics are right, the Jews constitute but one percent of the human race. It suggests a nebulous dim puff of star dust lost in the blaze of the Milky Way. Properly the Jew ought hardly to be heard of, but he is heard of, has always been heard of. He is as prominent on the planet as any other people, and his commercial importance is extravagantly out of proportion to the smallness of his bulk. His contributions to the world's list of great names in literature, science, art, music, finance, medicine, and abstruse learning are also away out of proportion to the weakness of his numbers. He has made a marvelous fight in the world, in all the ages; and has done it with his hands tied behind him. He could be vain of himself, and be excused for it. The Egyptian, the Babylonian, and the Persian rose, filled the planet with sound and splendor, then faded to dream-stuff and passed away; the Greek and the Roman followed, and made a vast noise, and they are gone; other peoples have sprung up and held their torch high for a time, but it burned out, and they sit in twilight now, or have vanished. The Jew saw them all, beat them all, and is now what he always was, exhibiting no decadence, no infirmities of age, no weakening of his parts, no slowing of his energies, and no dulling of his alert and aggressive mind. All things are mortal but the Jew; all other forces pass, but he remains. What is the secret of his immortality?"

- Mark Twain

In SIHA, we believe that the Answer to Mark Twain's question is rather obvious. Jewish education, coupled with an everlasting pride of our rich heritage has always served as a platform which made all accomplishments possible. Being an aware Jew is not a "certain way of life", but an ability to approach all areas of life with resolve, dignity, and responsibility. In SIHA, your child will develop a deep connection to the wellspring of knowledge that has irrigated the Jewish nation with wisdom and high moral standing for thousands of years. And once again, just like other components of SIHA, our Judaic curriculum will become one more brick in the little one's foundation for SUCCESS.

Very Truly Yours,

Rabbi Uzhansky

Dean

SIHA Mission Statement

Staten Island Hebrew Academy is revolutionizing the education of children from unaffiliated Jewish families by offering superior academics while bringing the children back to their Jewish roots with a deep love and appreciation of their Jewish heritage. Combining a rigorous curriculum with a rich Judaic studies program, Staten Island Hebrew Academy aims to have a lasting impact on unaffiliated families, including those from the Russian-Jewish community, by developing students of high moral character who not only are able to compete with the best and brightest in the 21st Century, but also know what it means to be Jewish, are proud of their Jewish heritage and can carry the torch of Judaism to their families and beyond. Staten Island Hebrew Academy is a successful model for making a reality the increased participation by modern Jews in Jewish life and education.

We expect all of our teachers and students to do their best in ensuring SIHA's excellence. All necessary technologically advanced and modern day researched methods of education are implemented at the school. We include extracurricular activities and trips to museums to support the optimal growth of our children. Since this is a school for the gifted and talented, all students are required to take a standardized and intelligence quota tests. Our advanced curriculum, off campus trips and our competitive extracurricular programs ensure our students receive the right opportunities for a successful life.

It is a premise to our Judaic belief that all people are different. We celebrate the idea of the infinite by recognizing the vast difference in all of humanity. It is the mission of SIHA to find emerging talent within all our students and nurture it to fruition. SIHA promotes and implements a "whole child" school environment. We offer differentiated instruction to develop potential skills and strengthen the areas that require further improvement. Teachers, parents, and administrators work together as a team in molding individualized goals for each child. Each subject is taught with a multi-sensory approach.

SIHA main goal is the success of your child. Your child is our most precious gift, not a number or statistic. Our cornerstone is team effort and with the help of G-D we can raise children who will be the future leaders of our community and world at large.
