Golden Text: II Corinthians 5:17 behold

(The golden thread running through the lesson)

. . . behold, all things are become new.

Responsive Reading: Psalms 96:1, 2, 6, 9 (to :); 34:3, 8, 12, 17, 22; 36:7-9 (to :)

1 O sing unto the Lord a new song: sing unto the Lord, all the earth.

2 Sing unto the Lord, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day.

6 Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

9 O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness:

3 O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.

8 O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

12 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

17 The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

22 The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

7 How excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

9 For with thee is the fountain of life:

Scientific Statement of Being

(Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, page 468:9) (hymnal / website)

Correlative Scripture: I John 3:1–3 (JB Phillips)

Consider the incredible love that the Father has shown us in allowing us to be called "children of God"—and that is not just what we are called, but what we are. Our heredity on the Godward side is no mere figure of speech—which explains why the world will no more recognize us than it recognized Christ. Oh, dear children, have you realized it? Here and now we are God's children. We don't know what we shall become in the future. We only know that, if reality were to break through, we should reflect his likeness, for we should see him as he really is! Everyone who has at heart a hope like that keeps himself pure, for he knows how pure Christ is.
