more reasons to use dan

Enables you to flexibly scale your copywriting capabilities to your workload.

(I'm here when you need me. Not, when you don't.)

Never eats while he's working on your stuff.

(Who needs ketchup stains on their pdf's?)

Can serve as your de facto copy department.

(Or 'facto' department. Whatever.)

Never rolls his r's when saying 'tortilla.'

(I also never roll the words 'Tortuga,' 'torpedo' or 'torrential'.)

Is a speaker as well as a writer.

(Blush. The video's on my website.)

Has never walked a cat.

(Or a ferret. Or a pot-bellied pig.)

Can also assume project administrative tasks.

(Because sometimes things go beyond writing copy.)
