EVENTS LEADING UP TO THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN SAINT GEORGE

Part IV

In 1879, Father Scanlan received an invitation from the Mormon leaders in Saint George to celebrate a High Mass in the newly completed Saint George Tabernacle. John McFarland had much to do with obtaining permission for the Mass; in fact, he went all the way to Erastus Snow, a very senior Mormon authority to get formal consent. Father Scanlan thankfully accepted the gracious invitation, but explained he did not have a choir for the Mass that was in Latin. So, Father Scanlan believed he would have to omit that particular part of the service. However, John MacFarland, the Mormon choir director asked for the Catholic music, "The Peter's Mass," and within two weeks the choir practiced and memorized the all of the required music in Latin. On May 18, 1879 the High Mass was perfectly celebrated with the appropriate music. Since most of the congregation was Mormon, Father Scanlan explained the significance of the sacred vestments and preached a very eloquent sermon. Over 3,000 people were in attendance. An unidentified French correspondent reported, "It was the grandest event I have ever witnessed in the history of the Catholic Church."

ABOUT THE DIOCESAN DEVELOPMENT DRIVE

We truly do stand on the shoulders of giants. Those who came before passed down the ways of the Faith and they provided the resources needed to live the Faith. It's been that way for the all of the Church's life, from those early home churches scattered throughout the Middle East in the days of Saint Paul to the dioceses we have today. "And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because he is a disciple – amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward (Matthew 10:42)."

Our local Church, the diocese, continues to pass down the Faith and provide resources for it. The land we are on right now is one such resource as are the lay ecclesial ministers, priests, deacons, and seminarians, who work in the parish. Like all parishes in the diocese, we benefit from the diocese. Like many people in the diocese, quite a few parishioners here give to the DDD not only because it is part of providing resources for future generations and future parishioners but also because it recognizes that someone else has done the same thing for us. Thanks to those who have contributed and those who are planning to do so.

A LITTLE SUNDAY HUMOR!

Provided by: Steve M.

★ Marriage is when a man and woman become as one. The trouble starts when they try to decide which one. ☺

★ Wife: "Our new neighbor always kisses his wife when he leaves for work. Why don't you do that?" Husband: "How can I? I don't even know her." ☺
