

"Prayer Points For Salvation Of Loved Ones"

The greatest concern for us after we are saved is the salvation of our family and friends. I don't believe God gives salvation to all in a household automatically. If there are unbelievers in the home they will not be saved unless they believe in Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. Salvation is, in short, deliverance from sin, deliverance from the guilt of it, from the punishment of it, and from the power of it.

Please note that praying for your loved ones to get saved is nothing short of spiritual warfare ... to rescue them from the pit of hell. It is a prayer of conflict and confrontation. To see any results, these prayers must be prayed regularly for loved ones who are not born again.

See what the Bible says in 2 Corinthians 4:4:

"In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them."

Satan is the god of this world. He has blinded the eyes of many with money, sex and success. His major weapon is deception. He attempts to make a person feel that what he has to offer is better than what God has to offer. Unfortunately, many have fallen into this trap of the enemy. They have become blind to the love of God and the sacrifice of His only begotten Son.

As you diligently use these prayer points to intercede for your loved ones, every blindfold of the enemy will be removed. All the lies he has told them shall be exposed. The Lord will dispel every darkness in their lives so that the light of the glorious gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ can shine into their lives.

The Bible directs us to pray until our joy is full. This may only happen when you can pray through to salvation for your loved ones who are rebellious toward the gospel.
