Somewhere in England

Dear Mom &amp; Dad,

Things certainly brightened up today when I received the V-mail letter from you. It was my first, incidentally.

Sorry I have not had a chance to write to you recently. Perhaps I'll be able to write quite often from now on.

Am glad you told me about George. Perhaps I may run across him. I'd like to lift one of these big bottles of beer with him. You should see the size of the things, - but it's not quite as good as ours.

I'm having a little trouble learning to deal in shillings and pounds, but it's like a game. You should see me on my issue bicycle. Just like a kid at Xmas. Everything's OK. Will write soon. Love, all,
 But
