THE WOMAN

Darlene A. Anderson is the President and Founder of Darlene's Utopia, a consulting, advocacy and production company; a philanthropist and author of the autobiographical empowerment book titled, "Not Without A Fight: 10 Ways To Win When It Appears You've Already Lost". Anderson is also the President / CEO of Utopia Network, Inc., a New York City community based non-profit organization that offers a wide range of services to the greater communities.

Anderson received her Bachelors of Science from Long Island University majoring in Sociology and is currently pursuing her Masters of Divinity with a concentration in Theology and Urban Ministries at Nyack College, within the Alliance Theological Seminary. Anderson is a registered National Chaplain with the Association of Small Churches, Houses of Worship.

Under the umbrella of Darlene's Utopia, Anderson has been able to marry her purpose with her passion for helping individuals elevate to their highest personal and professional potential by using her unique blend of personal and professional experiences as a seasoned social service professional within New York City.
