Happy Pentecost! It is certainly good to be back to Masses, even if we cannot yet have the full experience of filling our churches with singing. We have not missed out entirely on the Easter Season. We get this one day of it together, then back into Ordinary Time, though you won't see green vestments on a Sunday for two more weeks, as we have Trinity Sunday and then Corpus Christi coming up.

I hope that you found some inspiring televised Masses to tune into in these past months of quarantine. I hope you were refreshed by hearing some new preachers and seeing some different churches. I know that you missed your own parish church, but I think that we will look back on this in the future and hopefully remember clearly the ways that this lockdown stretched our faith and how we preserved our faith through it. We know that the world will end in great upheaval, and it is vitally important that each of us know how to preserve our faith in the midst of tribulation when we might be unable to openly attend our churches. If everything were to just fall apart if we couldn't publicly worship together, then our religion would already be dead. First and foremost we need strong faith lives in our family homes, with parents leading their children in prayer and regularly talking about Our Lord and Lady. I hope this quarantine gave families the nudge they needed to practice our religion conspicuously in their homes.

We have to continue our prayers for a vaccine or treatment regimen to fight this illness, and we have to be attentive to the aged who have grown lonely in this time of isolation. Look around for the people that regularly sat near you on a Sunday (because you all seem to always sit in the same spots) and if they are not here today, may I suggest that you give them a call and check in on them. Let me know if you discover anyone who asks for a visit from a priest, and I'll see what I can do about it.

Proverbs 11:24

One gives freely, yet grows all the richer; another withholds what he should give, and only suffers want.

Weekly Reflections

"To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good." (1 Corinthians 12:7)

To receive the gift of the Holy Spirit you must open your heart and invite Him in! Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your thoughts, words, and actions every day! Be grateful for all the gifts God has given you! Regardless of our individual circumstances, God has given all of us many blessings. What we do with those gifts is our gift back to God! By generously sharing everything we have and everything we are, we become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered" and our lives truly reflect God's light, love, and mercy.

We are the Hands of Christ

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, a new neighbor, a new work colleague, a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home?

Many of us probably do a much better job at this. When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded.

A simple “hello” and a smile goes a long way.

Prayer Blankets

You Matter. We care. You are not alone.

There are prayer blankets in the back of the church for those whom are sick, suffering or dying. Please sign the book to whom it is given to so we know who the prayers are for.

Thank you!!
