

Vincent M. Staub

Vincent M. Staub, 42, of Caseville passed away Sunday evening, April 8, 2012, at his home while under hospice care. Vince fought a long and courageous battle with cancer and he remained active and humorous through it all.

He was born Jan. 7, 1970, to the late Albert and Charlotte Staub in Pittsburgh, Pa. After high school, Vince moved to New port Richey, Fla., where he was employed on several shrimp boats, and was known to many as Gus.

There he met Patti L. Benda in 1989, and they moved to Caseville. They were married Feb. 14, 1992 until 2000.

Vince was employed at the Blue Water Inn in Caseville for many years. He enjoyed time spent with friends, playing pool, music, his step-sons, Brad and Brandon and his dog, Rocky, but most of all, he enjoyed playing his guitar.

Surviving are his daughter, Jamie of Pittsburgh, Pa.; ex-wife, Patti; step-sons, Brad and Brandon Zinger of Pigeon; two brothers, Jeff of Florida and Gregg of Texas; and his step-mothers, Dana Keigabine of Gainesville, Fla., and Rose Staub Gilroy of Pottersville, Pa.

Preceding him in death were his parents; and a brother, Barry Staub.

In keeping with his wishes, there will be no services.
