SECTION 1: TITLE

This Ordinance shall be known as the “Pauma Band of Mission Indians’ Peace and Security Ordinance” and cited throughout as “Ordinance.” The formal name of the Tribe as it appears in the Federal Register is Pauma Band of Luiseno Mission Indians of the Pauma & Yuima Reservation, California.

SECTION 2: PURPOSE AND POLICY

The peace and security of all residents of the Pauma Reservation, both members and non-members, shall be preserved and protected by the Pauma Band of Mission Indians (herein “Band”). It is the policy of the Band that all residents on the Reservation are entitled to the peaceful and tranquil pursuit of their lifestyles. It is the further policy of the Band that the Reservation residents are entitled to security against harassment, vandalism, disturbing the peace and other antisocial acts, both in public and in private.

This Ordinance will be interpreted and construed to:

A. Preserve the peace, harmony, safety, health and general welfare of the people of the Band and those permitted to enter or reside on the Reservation;

B. Ensure peace and order on the Reservation and lands of the Band;

C. Promote the welfare of the Band and its members;

D. Safeguard individual rights and community standards;

E. Secure rights and powers, which are inherent in the Band’s sovereign status;

F. Exert jurisdiction over all matters essential to the Band’s self-determination and self-governance;

G. Treat all parties fairly and without prejudice, protecting individual rights guaranteed by the Indian Civil Rights Act and by the traditions, customs and laws of the Band;

H. Resolve disputes fairly and efficiently; and

I. Provide an orderly procedure for resolving conflicts which reflects tribal customs and traditions as well as the prevailing community standards, and which affords all affected persons a fair, prompt, and impartial hearing.
SECTION 3: JURISDICTION

This Ordinance will be applicable to all persons and lands within the exterior boundaries of the Reservation pursuant to the Band’s Articles of Association.

SECTION 4: BAND REGULATIONS

This Business Committee of the Band, at the direction of the General Council, shall approve such regulations as it deems proper and necessary to carry out the policies of the Band with respect to preserving and maintaining the peace and security of Reservation residents. Such regulations may be prepared in conjunction with the Tribal Court and include all necessary procedures for serving a citation, conducting hearings before Tribal Court when a citation is challenged and other necessary and related procedural regulations. Such regulations may supersede or supplement any existing regulations.

SECTION 5: DEFINITIONS

A. “Business Committee (Tribal Council)” means the entity established under the Band’s Articles of Association.

B. “Civil Infraction” means a violation of tribal law as set forth in this Ordinance.

C. “Dangerous Weapon” means any weapon, device, material or substance, whether animate or inanimate, which in the manner it used or intended to be used is known to be capable of producing death or serious bodily injury (for example, clubs, brass knuckles.)

D. “Firearm” means any devise designed to use as a weapon, from which is expelled through a barrel a projectile by the force of an explosion or other form of combustion.

E. “General Council” means the governing body of the Band, comprised of all adult, voting members of the Band.

F. “Private Property (Assignment)” tribal trust land issued to tribal members by the Band as his/her assignment.

G. “Public Place” means any open area not a tribal member’s residence, yard, or home.

H. “Reservation” means the Reservation as established under the laws of the United States and set forth in the Band’s Articles of Association and shall encompass all territory within its exterior boundaries as now or hereafter prescribed or ascertained including fee patented lands, roads, water, bridges, lands and rights of way owned, used or claimed by any person.
I. "Tribal Court" means the Intertribal Court of Southern California or other court as designated by the Band to carry forth the judiciary responsibilities of the Band.

J. "Tribal Property" as used in this Ordinance means all property held by the United States government in trust for the Band. "Tribal Property" does not include individual tribal assignments unless specifically included.

K. "Tribal Law Enforcement Officer" means a person designated by the Band to enforce this Ordinance and to act as a law enforcement officer for the Band.

L. "Tribal Security Officer" means a person designated by the Band to provide security as a specific location and/or for a specific purpose.

SECTION 6: CIVIL PENALTIES

A. General Penalty Provisions

1. A person committing a violation under this Ordinance will be subject to a civil fine as set forth in the attached Schedule of Fines;

2. A person shall be subject to an increased fine if he or she is found to have violated any provisions of this Ordinance more than once with in a 12 month period.

3. In addition to, or in lieu of a civil fine, the Tribal Court may grant such other relief as is necessary and proper, including, but not limited to the following: community service, restitution, treatment and/or counseling and traditional sanctions;

4. The Tribal Court has the authority to forfeit personal property seized at the time the citation is issued, suspend or cancel a tribal license or permit, or cite for contempt;

5. It is a violation of this Ordinance when a visitor is asked by a Pauma Tribal Law Enforcement Officer, acting in his or her official capacity, to NOT properly identify oneself or to provide false or misleading information to said Tribal Official.

6. All individuals must obey all of the lawful posted signs of the Pauma Band of Mission Indians.

7. Tribal members are fiscally responsible for the actions of their guests.
B. Civil Penalties Deferred

1. The person has not committed any previous violations of this Ordinance;
2. The person does not commit any other violations of this Ordinance during the time the civil penalty is deferred or suspended;
3. The person does not commit any infractions, violations or offenses in any other jurisdictions during the time the civil penalty is deferred or suspended; and
4. The person complies with all Tribal Court orders concerning the civil infraction to the best of his or her ability.

C. Community Service

The Tribal Court recognizes that a person who violates this Ordinance may be unable to pay his or her fine as imposed by the Tribal Court. For this reason, the Tribal Court, at its discretion, may order community service in addition to or in place of a civil fine; except when the violation is for damages of another tribal member’s property. The Tribal Court will determine if the person is a suitable candidate for community service and will carry out the service.

1. Community Service is limited to:
   a. Performance on tribal property or for tribal agencies; or
   b. Performance at the primary residence of a tribal elder.

2. Tribal agencies or elders requiring services must submit a written request to the Tribal Court Administrator.

3. Assistance will be distributed in the order that requests are received.

4. The Tribal Court will keep a log of both services requested and performed.

5. The Tribal Court will provide a form for verification of community service to the service worker.

6. The community service worker will be responsible for:
   a. Obtaining written verification from the monitoring supervisor on the provided form; and
   b. Submitting this form to the Tribal Court as required.
D. Referral for Treatment

1. In place of, or in addition to, a civil penalty, the Tribal Court, at its discretion, may refer a violator to mental health providers including an alcohol/substance program, for an evaluation, counseling and/or treatment.

2. After completion of an evaluation, the agency conducting the evaluation shall report its findings and recommendations to the Tribal Court or an officer assigned by the Tribal Court.

3. The Tribal Court may order mental health providers to submit progress reports of treatment. An officer assigned by the Tribal Court will monitor the person’s progress in his or her treatment program.

4. Residential treatment facilities are an option for persons violating this Ordinance if so requested by the person and if recommended by an authorized mental health or other treatment agency.

E. Seizure/Forfeiture of Property

A Tribal Law Enforcement Officer may, upon probable cause when issuing a citation for a civil infraction, seize any property used in the commission of a violation of this Ordinance. All property utilized in violation of this Ordinance is also subject to seizure and forfeiture by order of the Tribal Court. The Band must return any property confiscated to its rightful owner unless the Tribal Court determines that the possession of the property is unlawful or a violation of this Ordinance, in which case it will become the property of the Band.

F. Enforcement of Civil Fines

1. In any case where a person has been found to have committed a civil infraction and a civil penalty has been assessed, the person has thirty (30) days to pay the civil fine. For good cause shown, the Tribal Court may extend the time for payment or approve an installment plan. Parent(s), guardians, or any adult responsible for the care of minor (a person under the age of 18) are liable for the civil fine of a minor.
2. If the person has not paid the civil fine within the time allotted by the Tribal Court, the Court may take and all actions necessary to collect the civil fine, including but not limited to the following:
   a. Order an employer on the Reservation to garnish up to twenty five (25%) of violator’s wages;
