Auditioning tips:

Introduction: Give time to say it. Say your name and selections clearly. Don't rush. The way you say your name tells me how much confidence you have. "Hi. My name is Janet Bresnahan. I will be doing a monologue called _____."

Props: Don't use any. There is an advantage to pantomime.

Be seen: Make sure that you are seen. Come through the door, smile, look at the lights and head for them. Minimize your profile. Keep front.

Voice: Make the audience come to you. Fill the space. Use good vocal technique. Variety is the key.

Uniqueness: Don't try to be different for the sake of being different. Don't dress outrageous to be remembered. Let your material be of utmost importance.

Ending: Step back into your introduction space. Don't just hang around. Your ending should give you additional opportunity to sell you and all that you can do.

Health: Be healthy of body, mind and spirit.

Preparation: preparation is everything. Make the monologue be in your soul. Be seen. Be heard. "I'm the greatest. This is the best audition you'll see all day."
