

JUNE 2020 - AVAILABLE MANUSCRIPTS

BY CHILDREN'S AUTHOR JENNIFER PHILLIPS, WWW.JENNIFERPHILLIPSAUTHOR.COM

Picture Books

Too Much!: About a neurodiverse girl who yarn bombs her town when a new knitting kit triggers her over-the-top desire to get crafty.

Horace Mann Refused to Stop: A biography about the man who drove revolutionizing American schools.

How to Keep Dad and Get a Cat: About how persistence and creativity can obtain a cat, even when Dad is allergic.

Sounds of Friendship: About a porcupine, raccoon and skunk that explores coping with loneliness, dealing with being misunderstood, and the rewards of not giving up.

Scissors Rock Paper: About three friends battling society's pressure to keep them the way they are.

The Creature from Below: About three siblings encountering a strange creature popping up from underground while exploring Grandpa's farm. Is it a monster? Will it eat them? What should they do?

The Reluctant Friend: About a child and pet bird and how their friendship weathers the cycles of life.

Middle Grade

The Peculiar Mechanics of Soaring: About an eighth grader in 1970s Midwest whose musical talent offers escape from her complicated life.

Young Adult

Firebreak: About a teen fighting insecurities & learning disabilities to become reluctant activist sleuthing an emerging elderly genocide to save her grandmother and other senior citizens.

Contact Jennifer for more details on any of these, or work-for-hire projects needing an enthusiastic, creative children's author!