

Alice Hall Hayes

Alice is a Washington, DC native. She was introduced into the Oracle Set Book Club by its Founder, Claudette Ford. Alice holds a BA in German and Russian Area Studies from Ripon College in Wisconsin. She attended the University of Hamburg and received an MA degree in Foreign Language Education from Rutgers University. Alice was an instructor of German at Lincoln University, PA, Assistant Academic Dean, Tufts University; Coordinator, Employment Clearinghouse at the National Association of Broadcasters; Co-owner of Vivaldi's Restaurant, Washington, DC; National Curriculum and Training Director, Best Friends Foundation, Washington, DC; Administrator of Continuing Medical Education for Physicians at Washington Hospital Center; Vice President of VMT Nursing Education Center; Credentialed as a Certified Meeting Professional.

Alice's Hobbies are gardening and researching family genealogy. Alice's immediate family members include husband, Edward; 2 children; a son-in-law and daughter-in-law; and 2 wonderful grandsons;

Her Most rewarding Oracle Set Book Club activity, in addition to the stimulating book discussions, is the excitement of planning and executing the annual book and author luncheon, which generates important financial support for DC Area High School Scholarships.
