Let Your Life Speak

A close-up of a man with a long white beard and a brown hood, looking off to the side with a serious expression.

“I tell you the truth, we speak of what we know, and we testify to what we have seen, but still you people do not accept our testimony. I have spoken to you of earthy things and you do not believe; how then will you believe if I speak of heavenly things?” (John 3:11-12)

1. God loves so you, he gives you his one, only Son, the second Adam.

Going a little farther, he fell with his face to the ground and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will."

Then he said to them, "My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me."
Matthew 26:38

Matthew 26:39

My Father,
if it is not possible
for this cup
to be taken away unless I drink it,

*may Your will

2. God sent his Son to save you, not to condemn.

The next day John was there again with two of his disciples.

When he saw Jesus passing by, he said, "Look, the Lamb of God!"

When the two disciples heard him say this, they followed Jesus.

John 1:35-37

2. God sent his Son to save you, not to condemn.

One of the two who heard John speak and followed Jesus was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first found his own brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which means Christ). He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, "You are Simon the son of John. You shall be called Cephas" (which means Peter).

"Nathanael said to him, 'Can anything good come out of Nazareth?' Philip said to him, 'Come and see.' "
