President's Message

Spring has arrived and we are preparing for another great All American Miniature Horse Show in June. Please step forward and help the committee chairs make this the best show to date! Everyone's help is needed and would be very appreciated.

Remember, to start collecting items for the Silent Auction. Please see if your local feed stores, banks, etc. would be willing to donate something.

Enjoy the warmer weather that is to come and we will see everyone in May!

Secretary Report

Meeting on March 17th, 2018 started at 11:02 am at the home of Gary and Amy Price.

The secretary report was read by Shauna Wood Holm and was approved by Sheila Steinfeldt and approved by Gary Price.

Tresures report was read by Gary Price and was approved by Sheila Steinfeldt and approve by Amanda Steinfeldt.

Old Business:

Kelly Lynch has the ribbons ordered with 1-6th places not having our logo on them but the rosettes and sashes still have the All American Miniature Horse Club logo. Kelly was able to save the club a lot of money but ordering ribbons in a larger quantity. Clark Wood made a motion to approve and Dave Robinson seconded.

Gary Price will email everyone about the club add in the journal. It was agreed that the club would donate $100 towards the ad while the remaining $656 will be split between farms that want to post their ad. Maureen Schroeder made a motion to approve while Gary Price seconded.

The club discussed the fun show for the 2018 season. Dave Robinson found the Cedar County Fairground would charge $250 but there were no stalls or camping. Clarke Wood reported that we can use the Jones County Fair camping if we have it close to fair time. There are portable stalls and driving can be outdoors. The club talked about doing a one day fun show and clinic. Starting the clinic at 10 am and show following. The club will promote to the 4H clubs to draw in more people and get the younger generation more involved. Amanda Steinfeldt agreed to host a clinic for showmanship and in hand training. Shauna Wood Holm will check into the Jones County Fairy for the weekend of July 28-29. Maureen made the motion to approve moving forward and Gary Price seconded.

New Business:

Gary Price reported that the clubs CPA said we are good with our nonprofit status for 2018.

Amy Price updated on the raffle for the club show. She bought a show halter from Star Lake Tack along with a performance halter donated from Showtime tack. The club discussed and agreed to have Amy Price order the show harness the club chose. Stephanie Coffey volunteered to make signage to advertise the raffle items for the show. The club will sell unlimited raffle tickets this year. Amanda Steinfeldt is going to look into getting a Andis clippers donated to the club. Sheila Steinfeldt made a motion that the club spends no more than $500 on raffle items and Clarke Wood 2nd.

Shauna Wood Holm is going to check with Dixie for arrangements for hotel rooms and flights for the judges. Maureen Schroeder is going to be in charge of the mare and foal race and is hoping to get 6 pairs. Stephanie Coffey and Dave Robinson will confirm with their 4H groups that they will hand out ribbons this year again. Edna is going to oversee the silent auction again. The meeting was adjourned at 12:13 pm by Amanda Steinfeldt and Barb Meyer 2nd the motion.

Next meeting will be at the home of Shauna Wood Holm in May. The May 19, 2018 meeting will be at Edna Woods 6379 Hwy 1 Martelle, IA. It is posted on the web page with directions.
