God's Temple is Holy and that Temple You Are Brethren, we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building. According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and another man is building upon it. Let each man take care how he builds upon it. For no other foundation can one lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw - each man's work will become manifest; for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. If the work which any man has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. If any man's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire. Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and that temple you are.

Stewardship Matters Reaching Out

S.S. Peter and Paul's Stewardship Committee invites you to help with an effort to get in touch with those who are missing from our pews and our Church family.

A significant stewardship responsibility is building community. So, we want to reach out to those who, for one reason or another, have not been with us to worship and enjoy the fellowship we have in Jesus Christ.

Please let Fr. Ivan or a member of the Stewardship Committee know the names, ages and contact information for missing members—those who need out support and whose support we need. We're working together to find a way to bring them back to Church. And, you are a vital part of that process.

The Gospel According to Matthew 14:22-34 Jesus Walks on Water

At that time, Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up into the hills by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but the boat by this time was many furlongs distant from the land, beaten by the waves; for the wind was against them. And in the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out for fear. But immediately he spoke to them, saying "Take heart, it is I; have no fear."

And Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, bid me come to you on the water." He said, "Come." So, Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus; but when he saw the wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, "Lord, save me." Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, "O man of little faith, why did you doubt?" And when they entered the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God." And when they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret.

Quotes for the week

"Don't be a spectator in the kingdom of God, find something that you can do, at-least even going to church is one of them" Author Unknown

"When you invite people to share in your miracle, you create future allies during rough weather." — Shannon L. Alder

Let our mouths be filled with Thy Praise O Lord. That we may extol Thy Glory for Thou hast deigned to make us partakers of Thy Holy, Divine, and Life-creating Mysteries. Keep us in Thy Holiness that all day we may be instructed in Thy Righteousness, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia (Song after Communion)

Wisdom for the Week

To try to discover the meaning of the commandments through study and reading without actually living in accordance with them is like mistaking the shadow of something for its reality.
—Saint Gregory of Sinai

For our love for God is demonstrated above all by the way we endure trials and temptations. —Saint Gregory Palamas

But what gives the most power to church services is a prayerful spirit. Prayer is an all-encompassing obligation, as well as an all-effective means. —Saint Theophan the Recluse

He who does his spiritual work correctly finds excuses for everyone else in order to justify their shortcomings, but never justifies himself, even when he is in the right. —Elder Paisios of Mount Athos

The merciful person is he who gives to others what he himself received from God, whether it be money, or food, or strength, a helpful word, a prayer or anything else that he has through which he can express his compassion for those in need. —Saint Peter of Damascus

Prayer is the seed of gentleness and the absence of anger... Prayer is a remedy against grief and depression... Whatever you have endured out of love of wisdom will bear fruit for you at the time of prayer... If you want to pray properly, do not let yourself be upset or you will run in vain. —Abba Nilus
