SECONDHAND SUNDAY IS HAPPENING OUTSIDE YOUR HOME, AND YOU'RE INVITED.

Sunday, September 30, 2018, is your chance to share any unwanted, reusable items. Simply leave them on your property next to the sidewalk or curb for your neighbours to take for free. Then, get in on the action. That thing your neighbour no longer wants could be exactly what you need.

Participating is easy!

1. Leave your reusable items on your property next to the sidewalk or curb on Sunday, September 30. Please, no hazardous, illegal or non-reusable items.
2. Fold this notice in half and display it as a sign beside your items.
3. Join in the fun by hunting for treasure in your neighbourhood. Share your finds online by tagging #SecondHandSundayTO, #CityofTO, or emailing info@secondhandsunday.ca
4. At 5 p.m., take back any remaining items or drop them off at a second-hand shop or charity. Search toronto.ca/wastewizard for locations near you. Items not removed after the event may result in a by-law violation.

Don't forget:

Always keep sidewalks and fire hydrants clear and obey the local traffic laws at all times.

Visit SecondHandSunday.ca to take a survey about your experience so we can make the next one even better.
