

SOCIAL WORK
BREAKS BARRIERS

ANNUAL CONFERENCE CALL FOR PROPOSALS JUNE 15 - 17, 2023, ORLANDO, FL

Proposal Deadline
January 17, 2023

Accept Notifications
February 2023

Pre-Conference
June 12 - 14, 2023

Conference
June 15 - 17, 2023

The Florida Hotel and Conference Center
1500 Sand Lake Road
Orlando, FL 32809

Registration Opens
April 2023

NASW-FL is accepting workshop and poster proposals for:

- 1. Emerging Issues in Practice: Forensic Social Work; Compensation; Burnout; Evidence-Based Practice; Outcomes; Measuring Fidelity; Program Implementation
- 2. Leadership, Supervision and Professional Development: Micro- / Macro-Leadership Approaches and Models; Best Practices in Social Work Supervision; Reflective Supervision; Grand Challenges
- 3. Macro Practice: Administrative; Research; Community Engagement; Public Policy; Social and Economic Justice; Ethics and Professional Standards; Court Systems; Social Service Systems Sustainability
- 4. Clinical Practice: Marginalized Populations; Addiction Treatment and Intervention; Group Practice; School Social Work; Medical Social Work; Telehealth; Private Practice; Trauma-Informed Approaches; Veterans and Military Families
- 5. Child Welfare: Family Support and Reunification; Kinship Care; Child Abuse & Neglect; Parenting Interventions; Foster Care and Adoptions; Collaborative Decision-Making
- 6. Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Belonging: Race and Ethnicity; Different Abilities; Gender Identity; Sexual Orientation; Ideology; Cultural Humility, Implicit Biases; Social and Economic Justice; Micro Aggressions
- 7. Social Work Education: Teaching Methods and Learning Styles; Integrating Research in Teaching; Incorporating Equity, Diversity and Inclusion in Teaching; Technology Integration; Micro-Mezzo-Macro Practice; Field Education / Supervision

Proposals must be submitted online:
<http://www.naswfl.org/conference.html>