

The Fun and Education Continues

Join David Hoff - Feb 3rd, 2025, for his annual day after IAC Convention Class

I am very excited to announce that I will be teaching at The Orleans Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas. I am waiting to see what new products Mayco Colors will be offering in their next release before deciding a class project(s). It is always fun to use new colors and products for these special classes. Therefore, final details for the project or projects have not been determined. Again, I ask that you trust me with the class content.

Please note the room rate for Sunday and Monday night will be $40.00 plus Resort Fee of $34.99 per night, when booking through the IAC group. Our group code is IACA25P. Direct pass key online is: <https://book.passkey.com/e/50789338> This code takes you directly to the Online Room Reservations.
