

Scientifically Research Based Programs

As a Title I school, SHES is required to use programs that have been researched and proven to make a profound impact on student achievement.

We have implemented intervention programs that support students in various ways with various needs.

Parents' Rights

As a parent, you have the right to:

- review the Worcester County Complaint Policy.
- review Title I documents and give input on the school/family compact, Title I Parent Engagement Plan, and the Title I budget.
- inquire about qualifications of the professionals that work with your child.
- attend workshops that will help you as a parent.

Title I

Schools that are considered to be located in high poverty areas are usually eligible for Title I funding. Title I federal funding is made available to a school when at least 40% of their total population receives Free and Reduced Meals services. This money should be used to provide additional materials for the school that would not be routinely provided by the district or county of which they are a part.

At SHES, these federal dollars come in the form of extra materials such as books and manipulatives that support learning, several staff positions, and money for parental engagement activities as well as some of the technology used throughout the school.

You have the opportunity to learn more about Title I on conference nights, during Title I Annual Meetings and during parent workshops.

All Snow Hill Elementary School students are enthusiastic learners who will be college and career ready.

Be on the lookout for family engagement dates throughout the year. There are many topics such as learning how to help your child be academically successful, managing behaviors, as well as learning about health and family wellness.

Accommodations for All Family Involvement

- multiple meeting dates and times
- interpreters as needed
- childcare as needed
- food where applicable
- transportation for attending parent workshops only (transportation concerns can be arranged only if a parent provides a written request within 48 hours of a specified workshop.)

WEBSITES

There are several online resources available to families.
