Finnian's Pet Tips

Hi! I'm Finnian Smith, top dog at TenderTouch CanineCare and a source of inspiration, and amusement, for my mom and dad. My owners are diligent about keeping me happy and healthy, and I'd like to share some of my secrets.

Today's topic: Holidays Are Happy Days!

Hi everyone! I wanted to fill you in on my awesome holiday season!

Here's the low-down on my "Holiday" experience:

 On Thanksgiving my Grandpa Fred came to see me. I love Grandpa Fred! I don't even think I napped on Thanksgiving Day, in case I missed anything important. I so enjoyed extra ear scratches, and had a fun time playing tug with grandpa. He gets a kick out of the fact that I'm pretty smart and when prompted (several times of course) to "go get fox" I actually went to the toy box and got my fox! I'm so much more than a pretty face! I was bummed (mom too) when he had to go home.

 Mom, dad and I traveled to see Grandpa Fred for Christmas. First I got bathed and spruced up to look good in the family photos. Then it was finally time to head out. I have to ride in my kennel on long road trips; I always protest a bit but it isn't so bad. And I'm safe! Once we got to Pennsylvania I was mega excited to get into the house and see Fred! He has lots of room for me to stretch out, and I love to explore the big yard and check out the new smells. In the house I've been trained well; although I like to sniff and check out everything new I don't get into anything I'm not supposed to, like decorations, gifts, or house plants/flowers. Make sure your mom and dad are careful with such items; you don't want to be sick or injured!

 On Christmas Eve my Uncle Mike and Uncle Mark, and their families, came to visit. I love to entertain and we had a fun day. I got a new stuffed animal for Christmas, to add to my collection. Mom had to remind our guests to not feed me anything. Dogs, and cats, don't do well with some people food, like ham or sweets. Our tummies are too sensitive. But: just in case your pet gets sick while traveling, make sure ahead of time that you are familiar with a local veterinarian and/or emergency vet clinic. And have your veterinarian's phone number handy in case an emergency vet needs to consult. Better safe than sorry!

 After a few days it was time to head home. I'll miss my grandpa and will see him soon, but it's always good to get home to my familiar territory and routine. Or as mom says, back to the ol' grind! Humans, honestly!

Happy New Year To All!

Hi! I'm Maureen Smith and I started TenderTouch CanineCare in 2003, when I needed a change from the traditional workplace. Having a knowledge about pet sitting (our puppy had a great sitter!), and a passion for pets, I decided to put my energy to good use. Many wonderful pets and their owners are glad that I did!
