

RAIN SOCIAL SATURDAY FALL 2017

CLASSES OFFERED:

Introduction Social Skills I and II:

Introduction classes that cover basic skills such as speaking to and greeting others, handling social mistakes, introduces the AAA strategy that is utilized throughout the duration of our classes to accurately assess and react appropriately in social situations.

Teen Survival Skills I and II:

Being a teen is tough! Sometimes the things we encounter in school and in life can make you wonder. This class focuses on the skills that teens need to be successful in school relating to peers and adults. We also focus on dealing with tough situations and making friends.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

RAIN
7250 PATTERSON AVE
RICHMOND, VA 23229
804-754-0000
CATHERINEPALL@RICHMONDAUTISM.ORG
WWW.RICHMONDAUTISM.ORG

AGES 10 +

INDIVIDUALIZED CURRICULUM

Combines :

Direct instruction, Peer integration, Guided Practice, Therapeutic Recreation and Team-building

Includes Activities Such As:
Art/ Science Projects, Yoga, Role-Playing Exercises with Scenarios.

GENERAL INFO

Cost: $335/ session or drop in rate of $75 per day*

10 AM– 2PM

September 30th– October 28th
November 11th– December
16th

\ New Students must schedule an intake appointment prior to attendance*

COMMUNITY TRIP AT END OF
SESSION FOR SKILL
ENRICHMENT