

MAPPLETON : Rip-Rap / rock armour in the form of large , resistant igneous and metamorphic boulders has been added to the base of the cliff.

This will absorb wave energy at the highest tides, prevent erosion and stop the undercutting of the cliff. This will make sub-aerial processes like landslips less likely.

