

Lutz, Donald J.

Donald John Lutz of Casa Grande, Ariz., formerly of AuGres, Mich. went to be with the Lord on Sunday, March 28. Born on Nov. 22, 1938 to the late Rudolph & Edna (Schmidt) Lutz. He is survived by his wife Robin (Seymore) Lutz.

Also surviving are his children, Sharon (Doug) Ingold of Kannapolis, N.C., Tim (Reneé) Lutz of Gold Hill, N.C., Tom (Lyne) Lutz of AuGres, Mich., Terry (Linda) Lutz of Pigeon, Ted (Kristel) Lutz of Monroe, N.C., Lynette (Terry) Starr of Rapid City, Mich., Shane Russel of Bristol, Ind., and Chandra Hold of Coloma, Mich. Twenty-eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren also survive him.

Don served in the Michigan National Guard from 1956-1962. He was a retired builder. Don loved hunting, fishing and took great pride in his gardening. He was an avid NASCAR fan, too.

While living in Casa Grande, Ariz., he was an active member of Trinity Lutheran Church, his faith was very important to him and he showed this by serving many positions in the church.

Cremation has taken place and Memorial services will be at 11 a.m., Saturday, April 3, 2010 at Riverside Mennonite Church, Twining, Mich. Friends may gather for visitation with family starting at 9 a.m. until time of service. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the family for funeral expenses.
