

OLIVER N. SCHAAF

1919 - 1995

Oliver N. "Ollie" SchAAF, 75 of Pigeon, passed away suddenly at his home on Saturday, Jan. 28.

He was born in Pigeon on Nov. 30, 1919, son of the late Norman and Ida (Weidman) SchAAF. He was united in marriage to Ruth H. Einhardt in Pigeon on Aug. 5, 1943. She survives him.

Mr. SchAAF was an avid fisherman. He owned and operated Pigeon Tile Works and Block Plant, established by his father. He then was employed by the Cooperative Elevator Company, Pigeon and most recently worked with his son at Bema Auto Center. He was a member at St. John Lutheran Church, Bema.

His survivors include his wife, Ruth; a son, James (Nancy) SchAAF, Pigeon; a daughter, Faye Hockmuth, Bay Port; six grandchildren, Roger, Kami, Lisa, Brenda, William and Matthew; a great-granddaughter, Brianna; a brother, Sheril "Bud" (Virginia) SchAAF, Pigeon; two sisters, Gladys (Glenn) Willong, Sandusky and Clara Dudley, Swartz Creek and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by four brothers, Arnold, Clarence, Wall and Glen and a sister, Mabel Damm.

Funeral services will be private.

Memorials may be made to Leader Dogs for the Blind.

The Meyersock-Bussema Funeral Home, Pigeon, was in charge of funeral arrangements.