

Ryan Doty - Frosh Assistant Coach/CO-OC

Ryan is looking forward to entering his first season as an assistant coach on Mountain View's freshman football team. He is from Corvallis, OR where he was a two-sport athlete playing basketball and football at Corvallis High School. Following graduation, Ryan attended Linn Benton Community College (LBCC) where he spent two years as a student athlete on the LBCC basketball team. Ryan and his family recently relocated to Bend, OR giving him the opportunity to coach football at both Cascade and Pilot Butte Middle Schools the past 3 seasons. In addition to football, he loves coaching basketball at Mountain View High School where he serves as the head JV coach for the Cougars. Currently, Coach Doty is excited to be enrolled at Oregon State University Cascades, working towards a degree in Social Science. Outside of Ryan's schooling and coaching, you can find him enjoying Central Oregon with his wife Jamie, and his two boys, Eban and Jaylen.
