In those days
Jesus came from Nazareth
of Galilee
and was baptized by John in the Jordan. And
just as he was coming up out of
the water,
he saw the
heavens torn
apart and the Spirit descending
like a dove on
him. And a voice came
from heaven,
"You are my Son,
the Beloved;
with you I am
well pleased."
Mark 1:9-11

The Baptism of the Lord

JANUARY 10, 2021

"Every baptized person has received the vocation to proclaim—to proclaim something, to proclaim Jesus—the vocation and mission to evangelize, to proclaim Jesus!"

—Pope Francis, February 2, 2020

Today, we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord!

The origin and foundation of Christian Baptism is Jesus. Before starting his public ministry, Jesus submitted himself to the baptism given by John the Baptist. The waters did not purify him; he cleansed the waters. "He comes to sanctify the Jordan for our sake . . . to begin a new creation through the Spirit and water" (St. Gregory Nazianzen, Liturgy of the Hours, I, 634).

Jesus' immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God's will. Jesus did not need to be baptized because he was totally faithful to the will of his Father and free from sin. However, he wanted to show his solidarity with human beings in order to reconcile them to the Father. By commanding his disciples to baptize all nations, he established the means by which people would die to sin—Original and actual—and begin to live a new life with God.

Gracious Lord, Child of Bethlehem

Gracious Lord, Child of Bethlehem,

As you were born into a family who fled to Egypt as refugees, help us grow in solidarity with refugees everywhere,
to know we are all refugees,
until our hearts find refuge in you.

As you were born under an oppressive regime,
let us grow in solidarity with those whose governments deny them their rights
and try to undermine their dignity.
Help us work for just governance everywhere.

As it was workers, the shepherds, who first came to know you, the
carpenter's son,
let us remember the dignity of
human labor—
that you share a special love for those who work hard for their sustenance,
and toil beside them.
Let us honor you, in work and in
prayer,
that livelihoods may be secure,
and that workers not be exploited.

As you were adored by the Magi who came from far-off nations to honor you,
let us bring to all nations the great good news that is your love.

As your coming was joyfully sung
by angels,
let us with joy celebrate the gift of life every time a child of God is conceived,
and honor that gift with our care.

As you were denied any birthplace but a stable, help us to open our homes, our lives, our hearts to the coming of God and his presence in your people.

Be born this time into our hearts,
dear Lord.

Gracious Lord, Child of Bethlehem,
through the cradle of our hearts,
be born into our world.

Amen
